Completely Revised and Updated

A HISTORY OF ISRAEL

Third Edition
by John Bright

Bright's latest revision of this classic text takes into account recent archaeological discoveries and historical scholarship, including, for the first time, preliminary findings of the Ebla Tablets. "A major contribution to contemporary biblical scholarship." The Christian Century Hardcover, $18.95

The Newest Addition to the Old Testament Library

JUDGES, A COMMENTARY

by J. Alberto Soggin

A significant addition to his highly acclaimed series, Judges provides a major commentary on an Old Testament book that rarely receives full treatment. Offering a detailed consideration of the text with commentary on every chapter and group of verses, Soggin deals with the problems of interpretation and indicates possible approaches and solutions. Hardcover, $16.00 (tentative price).

TOWARDS A WORLD THEOLOGY

Faith and the Comparative History of Religion

by Wilfred Cantwell Smith

In this landmark publication, the renowned author shows how the future of theology lies not in the assumption that all religions are alike, but that all share a common religious history. "There is an evident timeliness to Smith's proposal that carries conviction.

Christian theologians must attend to his challenge." John B. Cobb, Jr. "The book is a clarion call to a new epoch in religious thought." —Tom F. Driver
Hardcover, $18.95

THE SCOPE AND AUTHORITY OF THE BIBLE

by James Barr

From one of the world's preeminent scholars comes a work that examines a wide range of major issues involving theological study, including the place of story in theology, the character of the Bible as literature, and the historical-critical method of reading scripture. Also presented is a continuation of the controversial topic begun in Barr's earlier book, Fundamentalism. Paper, $7.95

Liberation Theology Deepens Its Exegetical Roots

EXODUS by J. Severino Croatto
A Hermeneutics of Freedom

A clear, scriptural examination of the Exodus as the primary revelation of God the Liberator and the foreshadow of Jesus' fulfillment.

"Provides a clear, healthy method to follow what is happening in liberation theology. . ."—Carroll Stuhlmueller, C.P., Catholic Theological Union, Chicago

"Severino Croatto is one of the most talented biblical scholars of Latin America, and this book is one of the foundational sources in the hermeneutics of Latin American liberation theology."

—Orlando E. Costas, Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Philadelphia

Paper $4.95

A Materialist Reading of the Gospel of Mark by Fernando Belo

Setting his reading of the Gospel of Mark in the context of the social conditions in the first century, Fernando Belo's novel analysis allows that Gospel to speak powerfully to men and women caught in the throes of social change and longing for a new world.

"As I read the Gospel of Mark in the light of what he has to say. . . I hear and am challenged to respond to a Word I had not heard before."
—Richard Shaull, Princeton University

"Claims our attention because it is a methodical piece of work and matched by a life of great commitment."—Rene Laurentin, author of Liberation, Development and Salvation.

DIRECTORY

OF DEPARTMENTS AND PROGRAMS OF
RELIGIOUS STUDIES IN NORTH AMERICA

NEW
1981 EDITION

An indispensable reference tool for departments of religious studies or theology, for schools of theology, for professors and students, for persons outside the field of religion, for libraries.

For the approximately 250 schools participating with full entries the Directory supplies the following information:

- type of institution and enrollment
- name, address, and telephone number of department or program
- name of chairperson and details on how to obtain a catalog or further information
- degrees offered and number of religion majors and degrees conferred, 1979-80
- a brief description of the department or program and its institutional setting
- a listing of faculty members for 1980-81 with data on their rank and fields, on highest degree and institution granting the degree, year the degree was granted, and year of entry to the department

For participating four-year schools and theological schools with graduate programs the Directory provides the further data:

- kinds of degrees offered
- kinds and numbers of degrees granted, 1979-80
- profile of graduate student population (number, kind, women, minority, foreign, attrition, placement)
- description of programs, requirements, financial aid, research facilities
- name of graduate advisor and details on how to obtain a graduate catalog and further information

The first index lists all departments and theological schools participating in the Directory, by state or province. The second lists faculty members at participating schools.

Appendices A and B provide names and addresses of over 900 departments or programs of religion in the United States and Canada.

Appendix C provides names and addresses of over 200 schools of theology in the United States and Canada.

Studies Review

Religious

A publication like Religious Studies Review has been needed for a long time in our field. We now have in the Review a thoroughly responsible organ dedicated to reviewing the critical books in the field of religion and related disciplines—it is high time and many of us are very, very grateful for it.

Sally McFague, Dean, Vanderbilt Divinity School

Religious Studies Review is a sign of maturity in the discipline, and a guide to the wealth of resources now available. Its scholarly approach and critical stance provide perspective in an area tempted to live beyond its means.

*Joseph C. McLelland, Dean, Faculty of Religious Studies
McGill University*

Religious Studies Review dramatically documents the extent to which American scholarship in religion has come of age after having achieved corporate self-consciousness only so recently. In the Review Essays each issue of RSR bristles with material relevant for anyone concerned with religious studies in its wider scope, while the Notes on Recent Publications, organized according to topic areas, provide prompt contact with the stream of books and monographs that continue to emerge from presses throughout the world. The listing of recently completed Dissertations in Religion is an added bonus.

Robert A. Kraft, Chairperson, Department of Religious Studies University of Pennsylvania

I have become an enthusiastic, regular reader of Religious Studies Review. It keeps me abreast of scholarly developments and current literature in my own and in other fields in a helpful, readable way.

*Robert T. Handy, Academic Dean and Professor of Church History
Union Seminary, New York, and Adjunct Professor of Religion
Columbia University*

A COMMUNITY OF CHARACTER: Toward a Constructive Christian Social Ethic Stanley Hauerwas

Recognized as one of the leading theological ethicists in the country, Hauerwas applies his theory of the narrative formation of Christian character to the field of social ethics in A Community of Character. He advances his ideas by showing why any consideration of the truth of Christian convictions cannot be divorced from the kind of community the church is and should be.

$20.00 cloth; $7.95 paper

VISION AND VIRTUE: Essays in Christian Ethical Reflection Stanley Hauerwas

In the opening essays, Hauerwas develops the methodological basis that makes intelligible the kinds of claims Christians do, might, or should want to make about the nature of the Christian moral life. He then shows that once ethics is focused on the nature and moral determination of the self, vision and virtue again become morally significant.

FRIENDSHIP: A Study in Theological Ethics Gilbert C. Meilaender, Jr.

The tensions between phila and agape have permeated our lives and helped to shape our world. We think politics a more important sphere than the private friendship bond. We seek fulfillment in and identify ourselves with our vocation – meaning, work for pay – not our friendships. Friendship examines the tensions and probes their significance for Christian thought and experience.

$9.95 cloth

THE SEVEN DEADLY SINS TODAY Henry Fairlie

"A biting critique of the hocus, the sleazy, self-deluding arrogance of much pop culture." – Christian Century "Depressingly accurate about many of our malaises . . . He fits the ancient sin to the contemporary condition." – The New York Times Book Review

$4.95 paper
