New Theatre Quarterly

CLIVE BARKER, Department of Theatre Studies, University of Warwick
SIMON TRUSSLER, Goldsmiths' College, University of London

'Every college library – every drama department – every student of theatre – every theatre-goer has to subscribe'

Eric Bentley

'It's hard, adult, and uncompromisingly serious ... To be frank, it's the first time I've found it absolutely necessary (and stimulating) to read a theatre magazine'

Peter Hall

'... the best theatre magazine I know of in English ...'

Edward Bond

'We should thank our lucky stars that NTQ has been around to stimulate the clapped-out brain cells of the English Theatre'

Charles Marowitz

'... unequivocally recommended as a primary source of critical studies on modern drama and the classical repertory.'

Choice

New Theatre Quarterly is a journal combining theatrical scholarship and practice. NTQ's articles are hard hitting. They question prevailing assumptions in the theatre world. NTQ follows four independent premises:

- theatre needs a philosophy
- theatre studies need methodology
- criticism needs a language
- theatre history has a contemporary relevance

What does all this mean to you?

NTQ has something for everyone by providing thought-provoking, interesting articles that you will refer to again and again. It's written for you! From theatre specialists to theatre-goers, NTQ's news, analysis and debate will prove to be an invaluable source of theatre research.

THEATRE RESEARCH / RECHERCHES THEATRALES

The International Federation published the journal Theatre Research/Recherches Théâtrales from 1959 to 1975 when it was succeeded by Theatre Research International. During these years many important articles of original research were published covering the whole field of theatre history from the earliest times, and particularly Shakespeare and the Elizabethan period, to more recent figures such as Strindberg, Craig and Beckett. There have been special issues on the themes of Opera, the Playwright as Director, and Reinhardt; a check-list of world theatre on records; and reports on International Conferences and Symposia of the I.F.T.R.

In all 14 volumes were published in 36 issues including a complete index. Most back issues are still available.

University and institutional libraries, and especially those who have subscribed to the new journal Theatre Research International, are recommended to take this opportunity of completing their holding of the earlier issues of this publication, while copies last.

Price: per issue £4 ($6); per volume £8 ($12) plus postage

A few complete runs of the 14 volumes (with two issues in facsimile) are available at £70($100). Postage extra.
