Change in Communist Systems

Edited by Chalmers Johnson. How and why do Communist systems change? Twelve of the world's leading specialists on Communism have set out to analyze the problems of social, political, and economic change in the 14 existent Communist systems—using contemporary models of social science theory, in particular the “mobilization system” model. $8.95

Political Terror in Communist Systems

Alexander Dallin and George W. Breslauer. In assessing the place of political terror in Communist systems, the authors of this original study identify its range of function, explore variations in its use, examine functional equivalents that permit its abatement or abandonment, and relate terror to the dynamics of developing political systems. $5.95

Human Rights and International Action

THE CASE OF FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION. Ernst B. Haas. To test his hypothesis that the effort to protect human rights by international means has been a failure, the author examines over 500 freedom-of-association cases mediated by the International Labor Organization from 1950 to 1968. $6.50

The Transformation of Political Culture in Cuba

Richard R. Fagen. "A thoughtful, well-written study of political socialization and change in Cuba."—Southeastern Latin Americanist. "As specific and cogent an examination as has been made. . . . Goes far toward explaining the Castro regime's survival."—The New York Times Book Review. Illustrated.
$8.50

Karl Radek

THE LAST INTERNATIONALIST. Warren Lerner. This full-scale study traces Radek's political career from his youth in Polish socialism through his stormy years in the old German Social Democratic Party and his recruitment into Bolshevism after the first Russian Revolution in 1917. His relations with Warszawski, Luxemburg, Lenin, Trotsky, and Stalin receive considerable attention. Illustrated.
$7.95

Georges Mandel and the Third Republic

John M. Sherwood. A determined, ambitious, and extremely able player of the game of parliamentary politics, Georges Mandel was one of the leading figures of the Third French Republic. This study follows his career from its brilliant beginning as chief assistant to Clemenceau to his imprisonment by the Petain government and his assassination in 1944. Illustrated.
