Information for Contributors

The policies and procedures presented here are reproduced in greater detail on the editorial office's website: <http://journal.philsci.org/>.

Submission Method: Manuscripts should be submitted electronically via the editorial office's website: <http://journal.philsci.org/submissions>. All electronic files should be readable in Microsoft Word or formatted as TeX or LaTeX. (Special restrictions apply to TeX and LaTeX documents; please see the website for details.) Other correspondence with the editorial office may be sent to: Philosophy of Science, Department of Philosophy, University of Washington, Box 353350, Seattle, WA 98195, USA.

Manuscripts: Submissions must not exceed 9,500 words, including abstract, footnotes, and references; a word count must be submitted with each essay. Manuscripts should be submitted in a form suitable for blind review and should include an abstract of approximately 100 words. Authors are strongly encouraged to employ a clear, reader-friendly writing style.

Discursive footnotes (consecutively numbered) should be kept to a minimum. Simple citations can be made in the text, by citing author and year of publication (with page number if necessary); a bibliography should appear on a separate page at the end. A detailed guide to the reference style appears on the website.

Copyright: Manuscripts should be submitted to Philosophy of Science with the understanding that upon acceptance for publication copyright will be transferred to the Philosophy of Science Association.

Book Reviews: Books intended for review should be sent to the address given above. Persons wishing to review a book should contact the editorial office.

Correspondence concerning PSA business matters should be addressed to Jessica Pfeifer, Executive Director, Philosophy of Science Association, Department of Philosophy, University of Maryland–Baltimore County, Baltimore, MD 21250 (e-mail: psa@umbc.edu). The Philosophy of Science Association website is at <http://philsci.org>.
