The Cambridge Law Journal

Editor

John Bell University of Cambridge, UK

The Cambridge Law Journal publishes articles on all aspects of law. Special emphasis is placed on contemporary developments, but the journal's range includes jurisprudence and legal history. An important feature of the journal is the Case and Comment section, in which members of the Cambridge Law Faculty and other distinguished contributors analyse recent judicial decisions, new legislation and current law reform proposals. The articles and case notes are designed to have the widest appeal to those interested in the law – whether as practitioners, students, teachers, judges or administrators – and to provide an opportunity for them to keep abreast of new ideas and the progress of legal reform. Each issue also contains an extensive section of book reviews.

Legal Theory

Editors

Matthew D. Adler, University of Pennsylvania Law School, USA

Larry Alexander, University of San Diego Law School, USA

David O. Brink, University of California, San Diego, USA

Scott J. Shapiro, Yale Law School, USA

Legal Theory draws contributions not only from academic law, but from a wide range of related disciplines in the humanities and social sciences, including philosophy, political science, economics, history and sociology. Topics covered fall mainly into the broad categories of analytical and normative jurisprudence, doctrinal theory, policy analyses of legal doctrines and critical theories of law.
