

Editor's Note

This is the last issue of NJL that has been edited by Thorstein Fretheim. The new editor is Åke Viberg, who is writing this note, and the new review editor is Maria Koptjevskaja Tamm. Thank you, Thorstein, for your valuable contribution as editor of NJL during 1990–92, and thank you, Jan Terje Faarlund, for your competent work as a review editor during the same period.

No major changes will be made in editorial policy. The practice of engaging guest editors to produce every second issue will be continued. The second issue of Vol. 16 (1993) will be a special issue on neuro-linguistics, which is being edited by Jussi Niemi, Matti Laine and Jürgen Tesak. The second issue of Vol. 17 (1994) will be devoted to linguistic typology and will be edited by Maria Koptjevskaja Tamm. Readers are hereby invited to send her their contributions by 31 January 1994. (Address: Department of Linguistics/Stockholm University/S-106 91 Stockholm/Sweden.)
