UK Kant Society

The UK Kant Society has recently been formed, with the aim of acting as a forum for the exchange of views about Kant's philosophy among those with a research or teaching interest in the subject. It plans to hold conferences, to encourage contacts with philosophers overseas with an interest in Kant, and possibly to start a journal. Membership subscription is £5 (£1 for students and unwaged).

For further details contact Professor Graham Bird, Department of Philosophy, University of Manchester, Manchester M13 9PL, UK.
