A Study in the Transmission of St. Cyprian's Treatises

MAURICE BÉVENOT, S.J.

'The importance of Father Bévenot's new book is . . . great, both for Cyprianic studies in particular and in a larger field. . . . The outstanding quality of this volume, considered as a work of scholarship, is matched by the beauty of the book production and the accuracy of the printing. . . . The Times Literary Supplement 421 net

Medieval Technology and Social Change

LYNN WHITE, JR.

The author examines the role of technological innovation in the rise of social groups during the Middle Ages, showing how a sudden change in methods of warfare affected the feudal nobles; how inventions altered peasant life in northern Europe, and how in the cities natural power and labour-saving devices applied to industrial production laid the foundations of capitalism.

History of the Court of Augmentations

1536-1554

WALTER C. RICHARDSON

The powerful Court of Augmentations administered the receipt of monastic acquisitions under Thomas Cromwell. Mr Richardson tells its story from the first Act of Dissolution in 1536 to a year after Mary's first parliament abolished the Court, though in one form or another its records continued until 1834. Based on a close study of the original documents, the book is a major contribution to the administrative history of the Tudor state. Illustrated £5 net

Meditations on the Life of Christ

An Illustrated Manuscript of the Fourteenth Century
Paris, Bibliothèque Nationale MS Ital. 115

Completed from the Latin and edited by ISA RAGUSA and ROSALIE H. GREEN

Translated from the Latin by ISA RAGUSA

This medieval narrative of the life of Jesus is a fourteenth-century Italian version of the famous Meditations at one time attributed to Saint Bonaventura. The annotated translation of the text is a most generous addition, especially since no English translation of any version of the Meditations is now in print. 193 facsimiles £6 net
