Liberty, Retrenchment and Reform

Popular Liberalism in the Age of Gladstone, 1860–1880

Eugenio F. Biagini

In an innovative synthesis of the history of popular support for the Liberal party, the author shows that, like republicanism or socialism in continental Europe, liberalism in Britain was a mass movement. This book examines the people who supported it, their beliefs, and the way in which those beliefs related to one another and to reality.

40315-4 Hardcover $74.95

Virtue Transformed

Political Argument in England, 1688–1740

Shelley Burt

This book offers a detailed study of political argument in early eighteenth century England. The author not only challenges the received notions of the fortunes of virtue in the early modern era but provides a promising critical perspective on the question of what sort of politics of virtue is possible or desirable today.

37528-2 Hardcover $39.95

Merchant Enterprise in Britain

From the Industrial Revolution to World War I

Stanley Chapman

This survey of the mercantile sector of the economy concentrates the various ways in which British merchants responded to the unprecedented opportunities of the Industrial Revolution and the growth of the British Empire.

35178-2 Hardcover $69.95

After Nature

English Kinship in the Late Twentieth Century

Marilyn Strathern

Central as kinship has been to the development of British social anthropology, this is the first attempt by an anthropologist to situate ideas about English kinship in a cultural context. The author challenges the traditional separation of Western kinship studies from the study of the wider society.

Lewis Henry Morgan Lectures

40525-4 Hardcover $54.95

42680-4 Paper $19.95

National Crisis and National Government

British Politics, the Economy and Empire, 1926–1932

Philip Williamson

This book is the first to examine all aspects of the crisis together and in depth using an extensive range of official, institutional and personal papers. It demonstrates that a proper understanding of economic and imperial policies requires a sophisticated grasp of political processes.

36137-0 Hardcover $89.95

The British Electorate, 1963–1987

A Compendium of Data from the British Election Studies

Ivor Crewe, Neil Day and Anthony Fox

This book provides for the first time an authoritative reference guide to British voters and British elections. It is based on a wealth of statistical information collected over the past quarter century by the British Election Study research teams at the Universities of Oxford and Essex.

From Cambridge

The Spirit of the Oxford Movement

Tractarian Essays

Owen Chadwick

"...the collection is interesting to read. The author is a great scholar and a superb writer."

—Catholic Historical Review

In this collection of new and revised essays the author writes on various aspects of the Oxford Movement and the English Church in the Victorian era.

37487-1 Hardcover $59.95

42440-2 Paper $19.95

William Cobbett and Rural Popular Culture

Ian Dyck

This first book-length study of the rural and cultural career of the great English countryman William Cobbett (1763–1835) uses Cobbett's own writings as well as innovative sources such as popular rural songs and ties Cobbett's radical politics to the countryside.

41394-X Hardcover $59.95

Friends in Life and Death

British and Irish Quakers,
1650–1900

Richard T. Vann and David Eversley

This volume looks at patterns of child-bearing, marriage and death among more than 8,000 Quaker families during the period of demographic transition. The authors show how high fertility and high mortality were features of English Quaker life, to be succeeded after 1825 by a move towards the modern, small family.

*Cambridge Studies in Population,
Economy and Society in Past Time 17*

39201-2 Hardcover $49.50

The Revolution of 1688–89

Changing Perspectives

Lois G. Schwoeerer, Editor

These essays help advance recent "changing perspectives" on the Revolution of 1688–89 by offering novel and interdisciplinary interpretations of the Revolution and of the late Stuart and early Hanoverian world from both an international and a domestic English perspective.

Contributors: Stephen B. Baxter, J. M. Beattie, Karl S. Bottigheimer, Gary S. De Krey, Jack P. Greene, K. H. D.

Haley, Bruce P. Lenman, Howard Nenner, J. G. A. Pocock, Lois Potter, John C. Rule, Gordon J. Schochet, Lois C. Schwoeerer, W. A. Speck, Rachel J. Weil, Steven N. Zwicker.

39321-3 Hardcover $59.95

The London Hanged

Crime and Civil Society in the Eighteenth Century

Peter Linebaugh

"This is a bold, sweeping and provocative book. At its core is an analysis of 1,242 persons publicly hanged at Tyburn between 1703 and 1772....

This is a book that will make for much fertile argument among specialists, while for the general reader it offers the most engrossing and stirring slice of London's history to have appeared in a long time. In the age of the bland, the commitment, passion and humanity of this dynamic book recommend it to readers well beyond the ranks of professional historians."

—The Times Higher

37948-2 Paper $14.95

Locality and Polity

A Study of Warwickshire Landed Society, 1401–1499

Christine Carpenter

This is a comprehensive study of minor landowners—the gentry—in one county of fifteenth-century England. It looks at all aspects of their lives, including marriage, the family, how they ran their estates and how they made friends and enemies, in an often very turbulent century.

The Pillars of Priestcraft Shaken

The Church of England and its Enemies, 1660–1730

J. A. I. Champion

The author is concerned with the radical Republican attacks on Christianity in England between 1660 and 1730 and the origins of the early English Enlightenment. Far from interpreting this attack as a secular or rational movement, he argues for the religious aspirations of the reformers and emphasizes the English contribution to ideas that have been associated traditionally with the French Enlightenment.

Cambridge Studies in Early Modern British History

40536-X Hardcover $59.95

English and French Towns in Feudal Society

A Contemporary Study

R. H. Hilton

This is a comparative study of the role of English and French towns in feudal society in the Middle Ages. Professor Hilton challenges the view that “a town is a town wherever it is,” and takes issue with the perception of the medieval town as the harbinger of capitalism.

Past and Present Publications

41352-4 Hardcover $44.95

The First Crusade

Steven Runciman

“It reads magnificently. As an example of sustained and intelligent narrative it could hardly be bettered. Sir Steven’s great achievement was to make a complicated subject appear simple and then to write it up beautifully...” —History Today

A Canto Book

42705-3 Paper $9.95

Richard Price: Political Writings

D. O. Thomas, Editor

Richard Price (1723–1791) was an eminent Welsh philosopher and Dissenting Minister who won considerable fame as a supporter of the American and French Revolutions. The volume is comprised of his most important pamphlets (1759–1789).

Mr. Bligh's Bad Language

Passion, Power, and Theater
on the Bounty

Greg Dening

"Greg Dening has produced a powerful new account of an event that has, over two centuries, helped to define our modern understandings of tyranny and resistance. His tale about Bligh and the mutineers is imaginative and learned, engaging and entertaining, much to be enjoyed by anyone interested in the society and culture of wooden ships and iron men."

—*Marcus Rediker,

38370-6 Hardcover $34.95

The Paintings of Thomas Gainsborough

Malcolm Cormack

This unique up-to-date and perceptive survey shows that Gainsborough was more than the well-known painter of The Blue Boy and the perennial rival to Joshua Reynolds.

English Portrait Miniatures

Revised Edition

Graham Reynolds

The first edition of this general survey on the art of portrait miniatures became the standard work on the subject. In this thoroughly revised edition, the author has entirely rewritten the early chapters to take account of recent research and has made corrections and revisions throughout.
