Anglo-American Idealism 1865-1927

An international conference on all aspects of late nineteenth and early twentieth century idealist philosophy will be held from 4th-6th July 1997 at Manchester College, Oxford. Plenary speakers arranged to date include: James Allard (on Bradley), Leslie Armour (on McTaggart), David Holdcroft (on Collingwood), Anthony Quinton (on Green), Timothy Sprigge (on Royce) and Geoffrey Thomas (on Bosanquet). In addition, there will be a series of discussion sessions based on contributed papers, submissions for which are now invited. These papers should be produced on A4 paper, be double-spaced, and be not more than twelve sides in length. It is hoped to be able to publish a selection of the papers after the conference, and submissions will be accepted only on condition that they have not been published elsewhere and they will, if required, be made available for publication in this collection. The initial submission deadline is December 31st 1996. Enquires, abstracts and papers should be sent to Bill Mander, Manchester College, Oxford OX1 3TD, UK; tel: 01865 271028; e-mail: william.mander@manchester.oxford.ac.uk.

E-mail addresses for members of HSGB

It is proposed to publish a full list of members of the HSGB in the next issue of the Bulletin, together with their postal addresses. Members who also wish to have their e-mail addresses listed should send details to the Editor (r.stern@sheffield.ac.uk) by January 31st 1996.
