A SOARING EAGLE

Alfred Marshall 1842–1924

Peter Groenewegen

"Given his worldwide reputation and immense influence on twentieth century economics, the absence of a scholarly biography of Alfred Marshall is shocking. Now, at last, Peter Groenewegen has filled this yawning gap, and his book is a major event for economists, intellectual historians and students of the social sciences."

ECONOMIC THOUGHT SINCE KEYNES

A History and Dictionary of Major Economists

Michel Beaud and Gilles Dostaler

"The history of very recent economic thought has been sadly neglected. This book seeks to fill this gap.... This is a book that has no parallel in the secondary literature. It is a unique contribution to the historiography of the recent past of our subject."
