Treaty Interpretation: Theory and Reality

by Edward Slavko Yambrusic

This enlightening text examines world peace and security through practical authoritative legitimacy. Using comprehensive empirical analysis, the author illustrates the major flaws in the judicial and legislative experience, and develops his own approach to treaty interpretation. He asserts that the role of the international arbiter is to realistically reconstruct the past to enrich the present with peace and stability through predictable objective international norms of behavior.

Contents include: Interpretation of Treaties: Conceptual and Theoretical Developments and State Practice; The Jurisprudence of the International Court of Justice; The General Rule of Interpretation of the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties: The Tavaux Preparatoires; and A Comparative Analysis of the Legislative Developments and the Judicial Practice.

Edward Slavko Yambrusic is an international lawyer and Attorney-Adviser for the Library of Congress.

Statutes and Regulations of The People's Republic of China

with Cumulative Consolidated Index and Updating Service

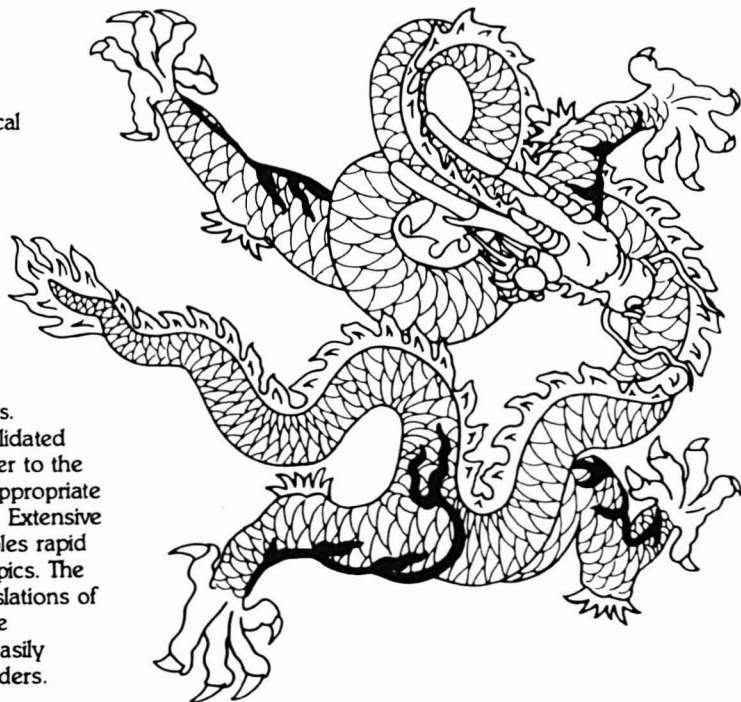

Published by Institute of Chinese Law (Publishers) Ltd. and University of East Asia, Macau.

The Table of Statutes lists over 410 major statutes in chronological order with the original Chinese title.

The selection has been made by the publishers in consultation with the China Law Society.

The alphabetical index covers in depth over 250 listed statutes.

This cumulative consolidated index directs the reader to the precise article of the appropriate law, rule or regulation. Extensive cross-referencing enables rapid checking of related topics. The complete English translations of all indexed statutes are provided in separate easily updated loose leaf binders.

With the support of the China Law Society, the publishers are able to bring you, throughout the year, new important legislation shortly after the promulgation date, ensuring that your collection is always up to date.

The publication features:

- Table of Statutes listed in chronological order.
- Index in alphabetical order of all major legislation.
- Complete English translation of Statutes in chronological order.
- Updating service with provision of complete text of new legislation.
- Annual update of index
- Annual update of table
- Continuous addition to the selection of law
