ASIL 110TH ANNUAL MEETING

MARCH 31 – APRIL 2, 2016

WASHINGTON, DC

Save the Date!

The Annual Meeting is a bit like an overflowing buffet table of international law dishes. It brings people from all over the world, interesting topics, and is truly a defining event for international law aficionados.

Lucinda Low
Partner, Steptoe & Johnson, LLP

With over a century of tradition and experience behind it, the American Society of International Law's Annual Meeting has become the most important gathering in the field of international law.

More than 1,200 practitioners, academics, and students travel to Washington, DC, each spring from all over the world to debate and discuss the latest developments in their field.

Visit www.asil.org/annualmeeting to learn more. ASIL member discounts apply.

Exploring Comparative International Law

This symposium explores the possibilities of “comparative international law”: as a field, a cluster of inquiries using comparative methods, or a set of approaches to aspects of international law. These articles frame this inquiry, examine issues of methodology, discuss the uses and limits of comparative materials in adumbrations of general principles of (international) law and in analyses of customary international law and treaty law, and present comparative multicountry research on international law in national legal systems.

THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

The American Society of International Law was organized in 1906 “to foster the study of international law and to promote the establishment and maintenance of international relations on the basis of law and justice.” Society membership is open to all persons of any nationality and profession who are interested in its objectives. Information about membership and sponsorship programs is available online at www.asil.org. The Society is incorporated by an Act of Congress approved September 20, 1950 (64 Stat. 869).

PROGRAM OF WORK

In addition to publishing the American Journal of International Law, the ASIL offers a variety of information resources and participation opportunities for members as well as nonmembers. These programs, best viewed at www.asil.org, include publications such as International Legal Materials and Studies in Transnational Legal Policy; electronic bulletins such as ASIL Insights, International Law In Brief, and IL.post; events such as the Annual Meeting and other gatherings in Washington, D.C., and around the world; outreach programs for the judicial sector, the media, and other audiences; an array of resources on the ASIL Web site, such as the Electronic Information System for International Law (EISIL) and the Guide to Electronic Resources for International Law (ERG); and opportunities to be part of an active network bridging expert and nonexpert communities associated with the development of international law.

PHILANTHROPY AND THE SOCIETY

The ASIL accomplishes much of its work through charitable support. The Society is grateful to its many members who contribute to the annual fund and the endowment, the foundations whose grants fund special programs, and the law firms, publishers, universities, and others that sponsor ASIL activity. The Society is particularly honored to receive contributions through the 21st century campaign and Patrons program and to be included in our members' estate plans through the ASIL Heritage Circle. We recognize these contributors below.

AMERICAN JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

The views expressed in the articles, editorial comments, book reviews, and all other contributions to the AJIL are those of the individual authors and are not to be taken as representing the views of the Board of Editors or the American Society of International Law.

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS

The American Journal of International Law (AJIL) invites submission of manuscripts on international law subjects. The Journal's coverage extends beyond public international law to closely related issues of global governance, transnational law, and national or sub-state law. It generally does not publish manuscripts focused on purely private or commercial law or on comparative or foreign law, including the internal law of the European Union. The Journal will not consider submissions whose content has been, or will be, published before it appears in this journal.

The Journal typically receives over 400 submissions each year for lead articles, current developments, or notes and comments from scholars and practitioners around the world. All such submissions are considered by the co-editors in chief as soon as feasible upon receipt, with expedited attention paid to exclusive submissions and to manuscripts, including candidates for notes, comments and current developments, that are less than 11,000 words. Submissions that are candidates for lead articles must receive, in addition to the approval of the co-editors in chief, the approval of two members of the Board of Editors in order to receive an offer of publication. (Where a submission presents a conflict of interest for the co-editors in chief, as with respect to submissions written by full-time members of the law faculty of New York University, the manuscript is handled by other members of the Board of Editors. Where only one of the two co-editors in chief has such a conflict of interest, the manuscript is handled by the other.) The process for peer review may involve members of the Board and outside scholars consulted for this purpose. This process ordinarily is double blind (meaning that the identity of the authors is unknown to the peer reviewers and vice versa). On occasion, this peer review process generates requests by the co-editors in chief for revision and resubmission. If ultimately rejected, manuscripts ordinarily are not resubmitted to the Journal.

Exclusive Submissions:

The Journal does not require exclusive submissions. Priority consideration will, however, be accorded where the author states that the submission is exclusive for a specified period of at least six weeks and commits to accept an offer of publication within the specified time period. Authors should bear in mind that, as a professionally juried journal, the Journal is rarely if ever able to make offers of publication in response to requests for expedited review within the time limits typically fixed by other journals that have made offers of publication.

Format and Style Guidelines:

All manuscripts should be double-spaced in 12-point Times New Roman type; these formatting requirements apply to all text, quotations, and footnotes. The maximum length for lead articles is 30,000 words (including footnotes which should be complete and generally in conformity with The Chicago Manual of Style (16th ed. 2010), The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (19th ed., 2010) as well as the AJIL Style Guide.

Shorter pieces with less discursive footnotes, including submissions for lead articles, are strongly encouraged and may receive more expedited review. The maximum length for "Current Developments" and "Notes and Comments" submissions is 11,000 words. All manuscripts should be accompanied by the author's CV (in a separate document and including a list of publications) as well as a short abstract of no more than 150 words.

Given the volume of submissions to the Journal, authors are strongly urged to strictly adhere to these guidelines; manuscripts that exceed the word limits indicated, are not generally in conformity with The Chicago Manual of Style, or whose footnotes are not in accord with The Bluebook, (see above) may be rejected for these reasons alone.

Submissions should be in electronic form and should be transmitted as attachments to e-mail messages addressed to ajil@asil.org. For the Journal's complete submissions guidelines information, please visit <http://www.asil.org/ajil-submissions>.

The Journal currently uses Word 2010/2007 but can convert manuscripts created in other word processing programs. (In such cases, please specify the program used. Documents must be in easily edited formats.) Please do not send manuscripts in PDF format.
