Politics & International Relations

Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

The politics list at Cambridge is one of unparalleled quality and range.

Our books list routinely tops surveys of political scientists for the calibre of its output, which includes field-defining series such as Cambridge Studies in Comparative Politics, Cambridge Studies in International Relations and Cambridge Texts in the History of Political Thought.

American Political Science Review and International Organization are widely recognised as the leading generalist journals in political science and international relations, while the likes of British Journal of Political Science and World Politics remain essential reading for researchers worldwide.

For students and scholars across the breadth of political enquiry, Cambridge is the resource of choice.

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The Classical Association has a worldwide membership and is open to all who value the study of the languages, literature, and civilisations of ancient Greece and Rome. It creates opportunities for friendly exchange and co-operation among classicists, encourages scholarship through its journals and other publications, and supports classics in schools and universities. Every year it holds an annual conference, and it sponsors branches all over the country which put on programmes of lectures and other activities.

The Classical Association has about 3,500 members. Members receive the Presidential Address once a year and a newsletter, CA News, twice a year. They may also subscribe at substantially reduced cost to the Classical Association journals Classical Quarterly, Classical Review, and Greece & Rome.

For more information and a membership application form please contact the Secretary, The Classical Association, Park House, 15–23 Greenhill Crescent, Watford WD18 8PH (tel. 01923 239300, e-mail: office@classicalassociation.org). The Secretary can also give information about the reduced journal subscription rates, and about the Association's other occasional publications.

THE CLASSICAL QUARTERLY

The Classical Quarterly has a reputation for publishing the highest quality classical scholarship for over 100 years. It publishes research papers and short notes in the fields of language, literature, history, and philosophy. Two substantial issues of The Classical Quarterly appear each year, in May and December. Given the quality and depth of the articles published in The Classical Quarterly, any serious classical library needs to have a copy on its shelves.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board.

FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests.

Please see www.fsc.org for information.
