Journal of MULTILINGUAL and MULTICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT

Editor John Edwards

When in 1980 this journal began under the editorship of Derrick Sharp, it announced a broad multilingual and multicultural mandate. Papers on research, theory, educational systems, teaching/learning strategies and assessment were solicited from a wide geographical range. Now, a dozen years on, it is a widely read and cited journal with a distinguished editorial board and list of authors. Under the new editorship of John Edwards the JMMD will continue to gain strength, visibility and importance on the field of multilingualism and multiculturalism.

Victorian America and the Civil War

Anne C. Rose

Victorian America and the Civil War examines the relationships between American Victorian culture and the Civil War. In examining the biographies of seventy-five Americans who lived in the antebellum and Civil War eras, elements of disequilibrium, passion and intellectual excitement are explored in contrast to the traditional view of Victorian self-control and moral assurance.
41081-9 Hardcover $29.95

Revolutionary Justice in Paris, 1789–1790

Barry M. Shapiro

Through a detailed examination of the major judicial affairs of 1789–90, this book demonstrates that the early revolutionary authorities actually treated their enemies with a remarkable degree of leniency and restraint and shows how men such as Lafayette made a sincere and temporarily successful effort to act in accordance with the liberal and humane principles of prerevolutionary Enlightenment thinkers.
41598-5 Hardcover $59.95

The City and Education in Four Nations

Ronald K. Goodenow and William E. Marsden, Editors

This volume offers a powerful response to the long-felt need for a substantial study of urban education that takes full comparative account of both the historical and international contexts. Contributors: Ronald K. Goodenow, David A. Reeder, Ronald D. Cohen, William J. Reese, Kerry Wimsburst, Ian Davey, Neil Sutherland, Jean Barman, William E. Marsden, Christine M. Heward, Barbara Finkelstein, Carl F. Kaestle, David Coulby, David L. Angus

The Nobility of Holland

From Knights to Regents, 1500–1650

H. K. F. van Nierop
Maarten Ultee

This is the first full-scale analysis of the social and political transformation of the nobility of Holland during the revolt against Spain in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. This is a revised edition of van Nierop's widely acclaimed Dutch publication.
39260-8 Hardcover $59.95

Contesting Cultural Authority

Essays in Victorian Intellectual Life
Frank M. Turner

This volume of essays reflects research, teaching and writing carried out over more than twenty years. The essays cover an extremely wide spectrum of Victorian thought, including the issues of secularization, cultural apostasy, the crisis of faith, Victorian scientific naturalism, and the Victorian attitude toward the ancient world. Taken as a whole the essays constitute a major revisionist overview of the Victorian intellectual enterprise.
37257-7 Hardcover $69.95

Sir James Pennethorne and the Making of Victorian London

Geoffrey Tyack

This book is about the history of nineteenth-century London architecture. Through a detailed study of the life and works of Sir James Pennethorne it explores the planning and development of the city, including the design of new streets and parks, and the architecture of public buildings such as the ballroom wing of Buckingham Palace, the Public Record Office, and an unbuilt scheme for the National Gallery.

Comparative Studies in Society and History is a forum for presentation and discussion of new research into problems of change and stability that recur in human societies through time or in the contemporary world. It sets up a working alliance between specialists in all branches of the social sciences and humanities. Debate and review articles bring the general reader in touch with current findings and issues.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Contributions may be descriptive, analytical, or theoretical. Any article not in itself comparative may be accepted if it lends itself to comment that will place it in comparative perspective. Correspondence with the editors prior to the submission of articles will help to enable them to obtain such comment or a companion study. Emphasis in comparative studies may be either on similarities or, if these are significant enough and call for some recasting of generalizations, on differences. All contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to the Editors, Comparative Studies in Society and History, 102 Rackham Building, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109-1070.

Two copies of each contribution, preferably accompanied by a stamped, addressed envelope, should be submitted. Both text and footnotes should be clearly typed with double spacing and wide margins; footnotes should appear on separate pages at the end of the article. Illustrations may be included by arrangement with the editors.
