

Nationalities Papers

is the only journal in the Western World which deals exclusively with all non-Russian nationalities of the USSR and national minorities in East European countries. The problems and importance of over 120 million people now, more than ever before, should be acknowledged and understood within the context of Soviet and East European studies. The fate of the Balts, Ukrainians, Jews, Caucasians, and the peoples of Central Asia is too important to be overlooked.

Nationalities Papers is published semi-annually by the Association for the Study of the Nationalities (USSR and East Europe) Inc.

The Editors accept for publication scholarly articles, review articles and documents in the areas of social sciences and humanities in English, French and German.

Correspondence concerning editorial and advertising matters should be addressed to Professor Stephan M. Horak, Editor, NATIONALITIES PAPERS, 216D Coleman Hall, Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, IL 61920 (USA)

Books for review are to be sent to Professor Andrew Ezergailis, Department of History, Ithaca College, Ithaca, N.Y. 14850 (USA).

Subscription rates

Subscription per volume (two issues): individual $12.00 ($20.00 for two years); for libraries and institutions $14.00 per year. Overseas rate $14.00 plus postage. Orders and cheques payable to Association for Study of the Nationalities are to be directed to the Managing Editor, Professor Andris Skreija, Department of Sociology, University of Nebraska at Omaha, Omaha, NE 68182 (USA).

CROSSROADS

ISRAEL RESEARCH INSTITUTE OF CONTEMPORARY SOCIETY

The journal focuses on the dynamics of social change and political interactions within and among the nations of Eastern Europe and the West. Special attention is devoted to Communist ideology, national movements and internal processes within the Soviet Union and the countries of Eastern Europe. Of particular interest are the respective Middle East policies and developments concerning the Jewish communities of these countries.

As a multidisciplinary and cross-cultural publication, Crossroads encourages innovations in research methodology and is open to the entire spectrum of analytical approaches.
