The Tragedy of Cambodian History

Politics, War, and Revolution
since 1945

DAVID P. CHANDLER

This penetrating book presents the first full account of Cambodian history from World War II up to 1979, focusing on the civil war period and the devastating revolutionary excesses of the Pol Pot regime. David P. Chandler draws on his experience as a foreign service officer in Phnom Penh, on interviews, and on archival material to consider why the revolution happened and how it was related to Cambodia's earlier history and to other events in Southeast Asia.

Art and Political Expression in Early China

MARTIN J. POWERS

In this pathbreaking book, Martin J. Powers examines the art and politics of the Han dynasty (206 B.C.-A.D. 220) and shows that both were shaped by the rise of an educated, non-aristocratic public that questioned the authority of the rich and royal at all levels.

White Dreams, Black Africa

The Antislavery Expedition to the Niger 1841-1842

HOWARD TEMPERLEY

A vivid account of the bizarre and ultimately tragic "civilizing" expedition to the Niger, launched by British anti-slavery crusaders in 1841 to cut off the slave trade at its source and make amends for past wrongs by carrying trade, civilization, and Christianity into the African heartland.

The Japanese Voter

SCOTT C. FLANAGAN,
SHINSAKU KOHEI,
ICHIRO MIYAKE,
BRADLEY M. RICHARDSON,
and JOJI WATANUKI

A landmark survey of the major factors that influence voting behaviour in Japan, this book discusses such topics as the role of the media, the importance of cultural values, the enormous stability in voting patterns, and the effects of the unusual Japanese electoral system.

Rebellion and Repression in the Philippines

RICHARD J. KESSLER

"Rebellion and Repression admirably answers [many] questions and exposes the fallacy that Marcos's oppression alone created the Communist Party of the Philippines and its military wing, the New People's Army." — Financial Times
