BURYING MAO

Chinese Politics in the Age of
Deng Xiaoping

Richard Baum

Less than twenty years after Mao Zedong's death, Maoism has been all but abandoned in China. The late Chairman's austere, egalitarian ethos has been thoroughly revised and revamped to suit the purposes of a new breed of marketized Marxists. In a timely book relating these changes, Richard Baum provides a lively, comprehensive guide to the intricate theater of post-Mao Chinese politics.

"Richard Baum demonstrates with this book his command of the Chinese political scene in a critical year of transition for China....Brilliantly researched and full of interpretative and nuanced insights into the leadership struggle, Burying Mao brings China into sharp focus as the world prepares for the next generation of leaders."

—Pat Tyler, Beijing correspondent, The New York Times

"Every scholar of contemporary China will have to own a copy."

—Dorothy J. Solinger, University of California, Irvine

CHINESE PRIMER

Ta-tuan Ch'en, Perry Link,
Yih-jian Tai, and Hai-tao Tang

Four experienced teachers of beginning Chinese have developed this introductory textbook. A pilot edition has been tested widely in classrooms and refined over a period of years. Among its salient features are lessons that are lively, amusing, and relevant to everyday life; concentrated training of ear and tongue in the sound system of Chinese; extensive grammar notes, clearly presented, with attention to mistakes English-speakers are likely to make; a carefully sequenced character workbook embodying a new and effective approach to the learning of Chinese characters; and audiovisual reinforcement via a complete set of audiotapes and two videotapes, one of which offers entertaining dramatizations of the lesson dialogues.

The Chinese Primer is available in two versions, one using the GR system of romanization, the other using Pinyin romanization. The Character Text volume contains texts of the lessons, in both traditional and simplified Chinese characters, and a Chinese introduction for teachers.

The first three volumes are sold as a set (GR or Pinyin). The Character Text is sold separately.

THE ZEN MONASTIC EXPERIENCE

Buddhist Practice in Contemporary
Korea

Robert E. Buswell, Jr.

Robert Buswell, a Buddhist scholar who spent five years as a Zen monk in Korea, draws on personal experience in this insightful account of day-to-day Zen monastic practice. His treatment lucidly relates contemporary Zen practice to the historical development of the tradition and to Korean history more generally, and his portrayal of the life of modern Zen monks in Korea provides an innovative and provocative look at Zen from the inside.

"A myth-shattering foray behind the walls of a Korean Zen Buddhist monastery. . . . a sound corrective to Western misunderstandings about Zen."—Kirkus Reviews

". . . one of the most honest and perceptive 'inside' portraits of institutional religious life I have ever read."

—Winston L. King, Journal of Religion
