The authors would like to amend an incorrect citation found on page 6 of the above article. The citation to Gaudio et al., 2011 should instead be to Gaudio & Quattrocchi, 2012.

The corrected sentence is:

Body image distortion has been postulated to reflect dysfunctional processing of information (Williamson et al., 2004) and both lesional and functional studies have reported alterations in regions associated with visuospatial processing (Uher and Tresaure, 2005; Gaudio & Quattrocchi, 2012).
