

In memory of

Valence Ramsay du Bois Ionescu

in whose house and through whose inspiration the journal Government and Opposition was born thirty-one years ago. Since then she read and commented on every number of the journal until this present one.