Merit and Responsibility

A STUDY IN GREEK VALUES

Arthur W. H. Adkins

This book surveys Greek values as exemplified in literature from the Iliad to the philosophical writings of Aristotle. It is intended both for the classical scholar and for the general reader concerned with questions of human behaviour and morals.

Causation in the Law

*H. L. A. Hart and
A. M. Honoré*

The courts often claim that they apply common-sense notions of causation in determining legal responsibilities. In this book the authors distinguish three related concepts used in common-sense explanations of puzzling events and attributions of responsibility. 55s. net

The Greek East and the Latin West

A STUDY IN THE CHRISTIAN TRADITION

Philip Sherrard

'... immensely stimulating. . . . What gives this book its value is its emphasis on the transcendent character of the Christian revelation and its appeal for the wider recognition of the Eastern mystique, an appeal . . . reinforced by a most interesting account of the thought of some little-known Eastern scholars, theologians and poets.'

THE MEANING AND PURPOSE OF ART

or

The Making of Life

ARTHUR R. HOWELL

(1881-1956)

Fully illustrated in colour and monochrome. This Important Book on Aesthetic Philosophy was originally published in 1945. The author then made very considerable revisions and additions, and there are additional illustrations. This book has had the honour of being accepted by the London County Council for use in Schools and inclusion in the Teachers' Library, and has recently been acquired for the permanent Collection of The LENIN Library, Moscow.
