Christ, Our Mother of Mercy

Divine Mercy and Compassion in the Theology of the Shewings of Julian of Norwich

1992. Large-Octavo. XIV, 262 pages. Cloth DM 168,- ISBN 3-11-013558-2

A theology of mercy drawn from a textual analysis of the Book of Shewings (Revelations) of the fourteenth century English mystic, Julian of Norwich.

Julian's image of Christ as the compassionate "mother" of mercy represents her mature theological vision of divine mercy. Julian's trinitarian theology, christology, soteriology, and anthropology are explored within the framework of her understanding of the relationship between kind (nature), mercy and grace. This study includes exhaustive references to the Middle English text of the Shewings, bibliography and index.

Religious Studies

Editors: Peter Byrne, King's College London
and Keith Ward, Christ Church, Oxford

Religious Studies is a leading international journal for the philosophy of religion. It publishes the best of current work in the subject as well as material in other branches of religious studies (such as methodology of the study of religion, history of religion and sociology of religion) provided it is of general scholarly interest. The journal has no commitment to any specific school of philosophy, or denominational or confessional background. Religious Studies encourages interchange and juxtaposition of views by publishing groups of articles on the same theme. Publication is rapid, facilitating philosophical responses and debate. The journal also carries book reviews of a high standard, many of which are critical essays in their own right.

Subscription

Religious Studies is published quarterly. Volume 28 (1992) is £76 for institutions and £37 for individuals. Volume 29 (1993) is £80 for institutions and £40 for individuals. Airmail is £16.50 per year extra.
