

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Contributions may be sent to either editor:	Professor Arthur Groos Department of German Studies Goldwin Smith Hall Cornell University Ithaca NY 14853 USA	Roger Parker Faculty of Music St. Aldate's Oxford OX1 1BD UK
---	---	---

The return of contributions cannot be guaranteed unless return postage is provided.

When an article has been accepted for publication, the author is strongly encouraged to send a copy of the final version on computer disk (Apple Macintosh or IBM compatible PC) together with the hard copy typescript, giving details of the wordprocessing software used (Microsoft Word, Word or Word Perfect). However, the publisher reserves the right to typeset material by conventional means if an author's disk proves unsatisfactory.

Manuscripts should be double spaced throughout (including footnotes, etc.) and should be typed on one side of the paper with ample margins. Contributors with word processors are requested to underline rather than use an italic font, and to avoid justification of right margins, automatic hyphenation and bold face type.

Footnotes should be numbered consecutively and be typed, double spaced, on separate pages at the end. Musical examples, figures, tables, etc. should be supplied on separate sheets.

Contributors who wish to reproduce photographs should provide good black and white prints, full details of the source and the full address of the copyright holder if this differs. Photographs will not normally be considered unless they are an intrinsic part of the contribution, and their inclusion will always be at the discretion of the editors. The full address of the copyright holder should also be provided for any material used in which the contributor does not hold copyright.

Punctuation should follow standard British practice. Single quotation marks should be used with double reserved for quotations within quotations. Punctuation that is not part of the quoted material should be outside closing quotation marks, as should footnote indicators. Longer quotation should be indented left without quotation marks and double spaced. Prose citations should be in English unless the original is of particular importance, unpublished or inaccessible, in which case the original should be followed by a translation in square brackets. Verse citations should be in the original language followed by a prose translation in square brackets.

Dates should be on the following model: c. 1740, 1840s, 5 February 1943. References should be to: Act I scene 2, op. 1 no. 2 in E major, Ex. 12 and Exx. 12–14, Fig. 3 and Figs. 6–9, motif(s) and leitmotif(s). For precise identification of pitch, use this system.

Sample footnotes (do not abbreviate journal titles):

- ¹ John Whenham, Claudio Monteverdi: 'Orfeo', Cambridge Opera Handbooks, 3rd edn (Cambridge, 1996), 44–6.
- ² Gerald Abraham, ed., The Age of Beethoven, 1790–1830, New Oxford History of Music, 8 (Oxford, 1982), 100–6.

- ⁹ Whenham (see n. 1), 57.

First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the editors an address through which they can be reached without delay and are able to return the corrected proofs, by airmail where necessary, within three days of receipt.

"Wide ranging and scholarly, Dance Research is a journal that no-one with a serious interest in dance can afford to ignore"

 Research

Dance Research has won widespread acclaim for the interest and diversity of its contents, and for its mixture of the scholarly and the informal, technical and discursive. Many of the articles break new ground while covering the broad spectrum of dance topics, ranging from the history of European theatre to dance anthropology and Renaissance spectacle. The journal is fully illustrated with rich and unusual archive material.
