THE NEW EDITOR OF THE BRITISH JOURNAL OF PSYCHIATRY

Dr E. H. Hare, Editor since 1973, has resigned.* He was succeeded in July by Dr J. L. Crammer, who was nominated by Council and elected unopposed.

Dr Crammer has been Senior Lecturer in Psychiatry and Honorary Consultant at the Maudsley Hospital since 1971. He has previously held consultant posts at Birmingham (All Saints Hospital and Uffculme Clinic) and in the Aylesbury-High Wycombe area of the Oxford Region (St John's Hospital, Stoke Mandeville and Royal Bucks). He was an Assistant Editor of the Journal (1968-73), and before specializing in psychiatry, was on the staff of the British Medical Journal. His research interests have included periodic catatonia, suicide, metabolism and use in treatment of psychotropic drugs, and hormonal and electrolyte changes in manic-depressive illness.

* An appreciation of the contribution made by Dr Hare as Editor will be published in a future issue of the Journal.
