THE CONSTITUTIONAL HISTORY OF MEDIAEVAL ENGLAND

VOLUME I, 1216—1399

Professor B. WILKINSON, M.A., Ph.D.

A treatise on the political background to constitutional development during the period 1216—1399, this volume contains a long general introduction and five chapters of documents in translation. Each of these chapters embraces a detailed discussion of the documents in relation to the problems which arose out of them, and the value of the book is greatly enhanced by its study of such important documents as the Provisions of Oxford and the Confirmation of the Charters.
