INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Founded in 1958, The Historical Journal publishes on all aspects of history since 1500, providing a forum for younger scholars making a distinguished debut as well as publishing the work of historians with an international reputation. The journal publishes original research in full-length articles and shorter communications and major surveys of the field in historiographical reviews and review articles. Contributions are aimed both at specialists and non-specialists.

Submissions should be made online at <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/hj>.

Please contact the part-time office at hj@hist.cam.ac.uk if you have any questions about the procedure, or wish to make a submission by another means.

Detailed instructions concerning submission and style, which must be consulted before a manuscript is submitted, are available at <https://www.cambridge.org/core/journals/historical-journal/information/instructions-contributors>

We aim to make a decision on submissions within three months and to publish the final version of an accepted article within six months of receipt.

Books for review should be sent to: The Editors, The Historical Journal, Faculty of History, West Road, Cambridge CB3 9EF.
