A FEMINIST APPROACH TO POWER

“Letty Russell has a well-deserved reputation for breaking new ground. She does so again in this volume.”

—Robert McAfee Brown

HOUSEHOLD OF FREEDOM: Authority in Feminist Theology

by Letty M. Russell

Letty Russell has written an important book for all those struggling with issues of authority and equality in the church. The well-known writer of feminist and liberation theologies and author of Growth in Partnership focuses on the question of authority and legitimate power. She uses the image of community—God’s household of freedom—to describe ways in which human beings can better live and work together in faith. Paper $8.95

Available at your local bookstore or direct from the publisher.

JESUS STUDIES

THE HUMANIST CHRISTOLOGY OF PAUL

Vol. 3, Jesus of Nazareth

Yesterday and Today

by Juan Luis Segundo

"Segundo's exploration of Romans is provocative and exciting. Paul's apparently 'apolitical' approach is shown to be extraordinarily relevant to our times."

— DAVID SKIDMORE, University of York

"This book stands apart as a constructive hermeneutical study of Paul and a theological anthropological groundwork for liberation theology."

— ROBERT HAIGHT, Toronto School of Theology
256pp., $14.95 pbk

JESUS AND THE HOPE OF THE POOR

by Luise Schottroff and
Wolfgang Stegemann

Jesus emerges in this valuable study as a Jew who not only proclaimed the reign of God in a unique way but was also a symbol of hope for the poor and oppressed of his time. "It shows how the categories of social criticism require a rereading of the New Testament."

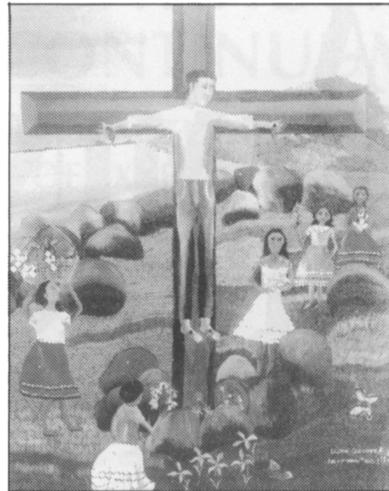

— WALTER BRUEGGEMAN,
Eden Theological Seminary
144pp., $9.95 pbk

A POOR MAN CALLED JESUS

Reflections on the Gospel of Mark
by Jose Cárdenas Pallares

"With scholarly rigor and a high level of literary grace, Pallares depicts Jesus as a poor man, a friend of the poor, who saw God as the champion of the poor."

— WALTER WINK, Auburn Theological Seminary
144pp., $8.95 pbk

THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT

Utopia or Program for Action?

by Pinchas Lapide

Lapide investigates the Sermon on the Mount from the fundamentally Hebraic quality of Jesus' ethical teaching.

"Pinchas Lapide joins a handful of Jewish scholars courageous enough to reclaim the Jewishness of Jesus. The importance of this endeavor cannot be overestimated. . . ."

— MARC ELLIS,
Institute for Justice and Peace
156pp., $9.95 pbk

JESUS BEFORE CHRISTIANITY

by Albert Nolan

Nolan's portrait of Jesus is unmistakably clear, convincing, challenging, and different.

"This book would provide a splendid base for a study group of committed, intelligent, socially and politically concerned Christians."

— BISHOP ALASTAIR HAGGART,
Primus of the Scottish Episcopal Church
156pp., $8.95 pbk

Anti-Judaism in Early Christianity

Volume 1, Paul and the Gospels

Edited by Peter Richardson with David Granskou

Volume 2, Separation and Polemic

Edited by Stephen G. Wilson

The scholars contributing to this two-volume work each examine a particular aspect of the development of anti-Judaism in the early Christian church. The first collection of studies relates the context and history of early Christianity to the harsh attitudes between Christians and Jews and discusses specific passages in the writings of Paul and in the Gospels. In the second volume the contributors focus on issues central to Jewish-Christian relations that appear in such writers as Barnabas, Melito, Marcion, Justin Martyr, Ignatius, and Philo.

Contributors to Volume 1 include Charles P. Anderson, Erwin Buck, Daniel Fraikin, Lloyd Gaston, David Granskou, John C. Hurd, William Klassen, Benno Przybylski, Peter Richardson, E. P. Sanders, and Stephen G. Wilson.

Contributors to Volume 2 include Lloyd Gaston, William Klassen, Jack Lightstone, Harold Remus, Peter Richardson, Alan F. Segal, Martin B. Shukster, and Stephen G. Wilson.

Peter Richardson teaches Religious Studies at University College, University of Toronto, David Granskou teaches Religious Studies at Wilfrid Laurier University, and Stephen G. Wilson is Professor of Religious Studies, Carleton University.

Religion & Literature

R&L is the forum for an on-going discussion of the relations between two crucial human concerns, the religious impulse and the literary forms of any era, place, or language.

We publish three times a year: four scholarly articles in each issue, as well as review essays and book notices. Each year one special issue is devoted to a single theme or area:

1984: An investigation of sacred experience and word in Jewish traditions, edited by Elie Wiesel.

1985: The role of language, literature and the imagination in the life and writings of Simone Weil.

1987: Religion, literature and politics.

R&L has published work by:

M.H. Abrams	Stanley Hauerwas
Thomas J.J. Altizer	Hugh Kenner
Felicia Bonaparte	Joseph Mazzeo
Robert MacAfee Brown	Sallie McFague
Wallace Fowle	J. Hillis Miller

— and many other thinkers concerned with the intersection between language and the ineffable.

Religion and Literature is a key source for anyone interested in these expressions of the human spirit.

If you love the Church, you must read . . .

The "Curran Affair" has called attention to the crisis of authority vs. authoritarianism in the Catholic Church. In Faithful Dissent, Father Curran provides complete documentation of his controversy with the Vatican over the legitimacy of theological and practical dissent in the Catholic Church. He includes all letters and statements from Rome as well as an extended reflection on the role of the moral theologian in the Church. If you love the Church, you must read Faithful Dissent, the key statement by this controversy's principal figure.
