COMING IN 1980!

The Essential Theatre, Second Edition

OSCAR G. BROCKETT, University of Texas

This overview of the theatre, in all its facets, has set a standard since 1964. It explores certain essential principles needed for reading plays or studying the theatre, examines how theatre has developed through time, and looks at how theatre functions in America today. Jan., ISBN 0-03-049371-4

Fundamentals of Play Directing, Fourth Edition

ALEXANDER DEAN, LAWRENCE CARRA

This study of play directing sets forth the basic principles that can serve as a foundation for the beginning director in any form of theatre. The revised text adds new factual material, exercises, illustrations and photographs, and a new chapter on directing musicals. Jan., ISBN 0-03-021351-X

Acting is Believing, Fourth Edition

CHARLES MCGAW

The text analyzes three fundamental areas in actor training: the actor as an expressive instrument; the ability to analyze a play and understand characterizations in terms of the playwright's meaning; techniques to communicate the play's essence to the audience. Jan., ISBN 0-03-021671-0
