

A Writer's City* can be imagined as maps of some of the world's greatest literary cities, taking the reader, area-by-area, through the neighbourhoods that shaped – and were shaped by – writers including James Joyce, Sally Rooney and Seamus Heaney.

“Here is the Dublin I know and love. This is an invaluable guide to a living, changing city; one that is rich in stories as well as books. Moving lightly from the deep past to the present day, Christopher Morash has managed to be affectionate, accurate and comprehensive, all at once.”

Anne Enright, Booker Prize Winner
