THE GOLDEN MAN

ANTHONY ROSS, O.P.

A delightful book, written partly for the entertainment of older children but also to bring out the ideal contained in The Golden Legend of Blessed James of Voragine. By a novel treatment of the lives, or incidents from the lives, of a number of Saints the author builds up the 'Golden Man', the ideal Christian who may be king or commoner, priest or bishop, princess or slave girl. Some of the chapters in this book have already been published in The Life of the Spirit and met with an enthusiastic reception.
