A thematic anthology that connects literature to life

Abcarian | Klotz | Cohen
LITERATURE: THE HUMAN EXPERIENCE
Reading and Writing, Thirteenth Edition

Organized around timeless themes (innocence and experience, conformity and rebellion, culture and identity, love and hate, life and death, Literature: The Human Experience presents an extraordinary range of selections from contemporary and classic authors across time and cultures. Students are certain to discover literature with which they can connect. And it costs less than comparable anthologies, providing a wealth of material for an affordable price.

Where stories and their writers do the talking

Charters
THE STORY AND ITS WRITER
An Introduction to Short Fiction, Tenth Edition

Ann Charters has an astute sense of which stories work most effectively in the classroom, and she knows that writers, not editors, have the most interesting and useful things to say about their fiction. The new, trimmer edition features many very recent stories and commentaries by up-and-coming writers; a new Casebook on short shorts or flash fiction; and an expanded focus on why we read, study, and write about short fiction.

LAUNCHPAD SOLO FOR LITERATURE:
The Online, Interactive Guide to Close Reading
launchpadworks.com

These online materials help students learn and practice close reading and critical thinking skills in an interactive environment. Easy-to-use and easy-to-assign modules based on widely taught literary selections guide students through common assignment types. Also here: reading comprehension quizzes based on over 500 selections, as well as exercises on the elements of literature, and videos of writers talking about their craft.
