THE QUARTERLY REVIEW OF ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS

SPECIAL NOTICE

In the future the Quarterly Review of Economics and Business will devote some regular issues to special topics. The first of these will be on "Inflation and Current Value Accounting," edited by James C. McKeown. Submission of articles specifically intended for this issue is urged.

The focus is on considerations related to the interactions between inflation and accounting (theory and practice). Among the issues of interest are

(1) Development and analysis/commentary concerning models designed to provide useful information in an environment of changing prices and price levels;

(2) Economic effects of the use of an accounting model which assumes the dollar is a constant unit of measure (conventional historical cost accounting); and

(3) Nonaccounting information sources or treatments which are or may be used to mitigate or remove problems in (2).

Empirical as well as theoretical papers are invited. Although the focus is on accounting, researchers in other areas are invited to submit papers, since the issues involved clearly extend into other disciplines.

Deadline for paper submission is 1 February 1978. Address — 408 David Kinley Hall, University of Illinois, Urbana, IL 61801.

THE JOURNAL OF ECONOMIC HISTORY

A Quarterly Journal

Published by the Economic History Association since 1940. Its purposes are to stimulate interest in the study of economic history; to encourage research in this field; to cooperate with societies devoted to the study of agricultural, industrial, or business history; and to collaborate with economists, historians, statisticians, geographers and all other students of economic change.

Annual memberships are: student, $5; regular, United States, $15; library subscriptions, $20; regular membership, foreign, $15.50.

Applications for memberships and subscriptions should be addressed to Richmond D. Williams, Secretary-Treasurer, Eleutherian Mills Historical Library, Wilmington, Delaware 19807.

ENTERPRISE AND NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

ESSAYS IN CANADIAN BUSINESS AND ECONOMIC HISTORY
Edited by GLENN PORTER AND ROBERT CUFF

These essays deal with a wide range of important topics in the interaction of business, government, and society in Canada. Their value is two-fold. As careful explorations of Canadian history, they provide important insights into the Canadian past. But the issues they treat are still with us, and these essays make important contributions to the continuing debate over such enduring issues as the mainsprings of national identity, the impact of foreign influence on the economy, the search for economic growth, and the optimum relationship between federal and provincial governments in shaping national development.

These essays appeared originally in Business History Review. Contributors: Glenn Porter, Christopher Armstrong, H. V. Nelles, Michael Bliss, T. W. Acheson, Stephen Scheinberg, Patricia E. Roy, Alan Wilson. 138 pp. $2.50/$6.95.

Newcomen Awards in Business History

Presented by

THE NEWCOMEN SOCIETY IN NORTH AMERICA

in cooperation with

THE BUSINESS HISTORY REVIEW

❖ Two Newcomen Awards in Business History are offered annually for articles published in the Business History Review. The First Prize, of $250, is awarded the article judged, according to the rules outlined below, to be the best of the year. The Special Award, of $100, is for the best article by a graduate student or a recent Ph.D. who has not published a book.

❖ Prize articles are selected by a panel of judges composed of a representative of The Newcomen Society and members of the Advisory Board of the Business History Review. No member of the Advisory Board or editorial staff shall be eligible for a prize, and articles so authored will not be considered in the judging. Authors eligible for the Special Award shall also be eligible for the First Prize, but in no event shall both prizes be awarded for the same article. The Advisory Board reserves the right to withhold the Special Award in the event that eligible articles do not, in the Board's judgment, merit prize consideration. The awards program is administered by the editorial offices of the magazine.

❖ Criteria for selection include: originality, value, breadth, and interest of contribution, quality of research materials and methods, and quality of presentation.
