Think has been created to forge a direct link between contemporary philosophy and the widest possible readership. The central aim of the journal is to provide to a very wide audience – encompassing undergraduates, 'A' level students, students in further education and the general public – highly accessible and engaging writing by philosophers pre-eminent in their fields.

Submission Guidelines

All contributions (2 copies unless submitting by e-mail attachment, see below) should be typed on A4 (or equivalent) paper and double spaced. Any form of annotation and referencing may be used for the original submission, but accepted papers must be revised to conform to Utilitas house style. A copy of the style sheet is available from the editor on request. Typescripts will not be returned. Authors are responsible for observing the laws of copyright when quoting or reproducing material, and for any reproduction fees involved. Authors submitting a paper do so on the understanding that, if accepted for publication, exclusive copyright in the paper shall be assigned to the publishers. In consideration for assignment of copyright, the publisher will supply the author with two free copies of the journal. Notwithstanding the assignment of copyright in their contribution, all contributors retain certain non-transferable rights, provided appropriate acknowledgement is made to Utilitas as the original place of publication.

These rights are outlined in detail on the web at <http://titles.cambridge.org/journals/uti>. The Assignment of Copyright form is available from the editorial office.

Submissions should be sent to: Prof. Paul Kelly, Department of Government, London School of Economics, Houghton Street, London WC2A 2AE, UK. p.j.kelly@lse.ac.uk. Electronic submissions are welcomed as e-mail attachments in Word or PDF files only. Contributors should also send 1 hard copy.

Books for review should be sent to: Prof. David Weinstein (Reviews), Department of Political Science, Wake Forest University, Box 7568 Winston-Salem, NC 27109, USA.

Further information is available in the Notes for Contributors page at <http://titles.cambridge.org/journals/uti>.
