The University in the Market

Edited by L. Engwall and D. Weaire

Wenner-Gren International Series

The modern university has been brought into close engagement with the commercial and industrial market. This volume presents the views of leading European experts, regarding the threats and opportunities presented by this accelerating trend.

This book will be of interest to scholars of higher education, knowledge management and technology transfer, as well as to policy makers, university leaders and corporate scientific directors.

ISBN 9781855781689 Pages: 157 Hardback Published: August 2008 Price: £50.00, Offer Price: £37.50

Quality Assessment for Higher Education in Europe

Edited by A. Cavalli

In recent decades, factors such as the diffusion of mass systems of higher education and their increasing complexity and differentiation, the tendency to strengthen the autonomy of individual institutions, and the establishment of international exchange and co-operation networks in both research and teaching have strongly favoured the establishment of systems of quality assessment and/or accreditation.

This book is a summary of the presentations at a symposium held in Pavia, Italy, in 2006, in which experts in the field attempt to find some common reference points and discuss the present situation and likely future developments.

ISBN 9781855781719 Pages: 158 Paperback Published: September 2007 Price: £37.50, Offer Price: £28.13

The Formative Years of Scholars

Edited by U. Teichler

Wenner-Gren International Series
Volume 83

The stages of scholars' careers between the first degree and the appointment to a professorship (or similar research position) have undergone profound changes in the recent past in many European countries.

This volume contains contributions from a broad range of experts who participated in a symposium held in Stockholm in November 2005, which analysed learning and productive work, career development, external conditions and developments of knowledge systems that affect the various stages of the formative years of scholars.

ISBN 9781855781641 Pages: 120 Hardback Published: November 2006 Price: £50.00, Offer Price: £37.50

Excellence in Higher Education

Edited by E. de Corte

Wenner-Gren International Series
Volume 82

Excellence in Higher Education discusses the topical issue of excellence in higher education from a variety of perspectives, with contributions from leading scholars involved in research and policy relating to higher education.

This volume is based on the presentations and discussions during a conference held at the Wenner-Gren Centre in Stockholm on May 31 and June 1, 2002, sponsored by the Wenner-Gren Foundation.

ISBN 9781855781528 Pages: 230 Hardback Published: May 2003 Price: £75.00, Offer Price: £56.25

Virtual University? Educational Environments of the Future

Edited by H.J. van der Molen

Wenner-Gren International Series
Volume 79

Higher education institutions around the world are experimenting with many different types of virtual learning environments, and it becomes increasingly clear that universities will change as a result of the massive increase in the use of electronic information and communication technologies.

From this book it emerges that information and communication technologies will have a major impact on teaching and learning, and universities should have a strategy to meet this change.

This book is of interest for everybody involved in teaching and learning in higher education, not in the least for those managing higher education systems and institutions.

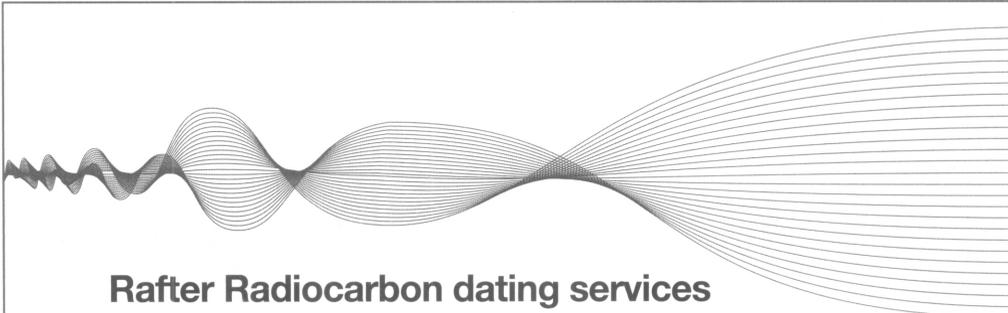

ISBN 9781855781450 Pages: 152 Hardback Published: April 2001 Price: £75.00, Offer Price: £56.25

Rafter Radiocarbon dating services and Stable Isotope science

Our isotope analysis services can help you unlock the answers to archaeological, ecological and environmental history.

Whether you seek knowledge of "a moment in time" from radiocarbon dating, or "inside knowledge" of isotope processes, Rafter Radiocarbon and GNS Science can provide the answers.

We provide

- prompt 8 week reporting times and 3 week express services
- competitive prices
- $\delta^{13}\text{C}$ corrections at no extra charge
- enhanced precision measurements
- radiometric ^{14}C dating for large samples
- bone C and N analysis (%C, %N, $\delta^{13}\text{C}$, $\delta^{15}\text{N}$, C:N)
- direct dating of pollen
- x-ray diffraction for shells
- calibration assistance
- free consultancy services

Whose Culture?

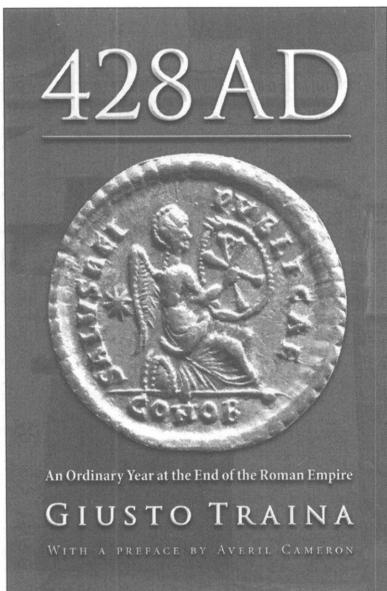

The Promise of Museums and the Debate over Antiquities

Edited by James Cuno

"Whose Culture?" makes the strongest case yet for an internationalist approach to the protection and ownership of ancient cultural heritage, and against its nationalization by modern states on political and ideological grounds. Cuno argues that effective measures against the looting of ancient sites do not require exclusively nationalistic ownership, and that a more enlightened international framework would allow cultural heritage to continue to serve an ambassadorial role as a stimulus to artistic and cultural interaction. This book is essential reading for anyone interested in this increasingly important debate."

428 AD

An Ordinary Year at the End of the Roman Empire

Giusto Traina

With a preface by Averil Cameron

*"Giusto Traina's 428 AD demands attention. Not only is it a first-rate piece of scholarship; it is engaging, original, and a pleasure to read. Focusing his book on the year 428 is a brilliant idea. Traina is completely successful in using this device to give a synoptic view of late antiquity, not just the late Roman Empire. The narrative is never forced; his journey progresses quite naturally, delighting the reader with fascinating information at every step. This is a commendable achievement in the same spirit as Peter Brown's The World of Late Antiquity. 428 will be an 'anonymous' year no more."*

Notes for Contributors

Antiquity* aims to report new archaeological research, methods and issues of international significance in plain language to a broad academic and professional readership.

We ask prospective authors to consult previous issues of the journal and the full Notes for Contributors on our website at <http://antiquity.ac.uk/contnotes.html>.

Submissions for publication in the JOURNAL should be sent with a disc and hard copy to The Editor, Antiquity, King's Manor, York, YO1 7EP, UK, or by e-mail to editor@antiquity.ac.uk.

Text should be submitted in English in MS Word 2000 or a compatible program and have a maximum length of 5000 words. Please indicate the corresponding author. References should be in the Harvard format (Antiquity does not use footnotes or end-notes). For initial consideration, figures may be embedded in the Word file or submitted as low-resolution jpeg files, but please note our publication image requirements.

Papers submitted to the journal are peer-reviewed by two or more referees. The Editor aims to make a decision on whether the paper is to be accepted within four to six months of receipt.

Authors whose papers are declined are notified via e-mail by the editor, and we can normally pass on part or all of the referees' reports to assist feedback.

Authors whose papers are accepted may be asked to send an updated, revised text and will need to send figures of publication quality. These should be sent as hard copy photographs or drawings or as TIFF files at 600 dpi (colour or monochrome photographs) and EPS files at 1200 dpi (line drawings) on a CD-ROM or Zip disk. Colour images should be prepared in CMYK; RGB should not be used. Authors may be asked if we can mount long tables and other data on our website.

Authors will be asked to contribute towards the cost of publishing colour images. The charge is £100 per page with colour images.

Authors receive a free PDF of their paper, and may order offprints at a charge of £0.75 each (orders must be for 25 offprints or multiples thereof).

Submissions for publication in the PROJECT GALLERY on the website (<http://antiquity.ac.uk/ProjGall/>) should be e-mailed to editor@antiquity.ac.uk as attachments. Text should be in MS Word and have a maximum length of 1000 words. Figures (colour or monochrome, maximum of 6 pictures) should be jpeg files at 72 dpi. Submissions for the Project Gallery are not peer-reviewed but the Editor may request changes before a submission is accepted. Authors will be asked to check their page before it goes live online.

BOOKS FOR REVIEW

We welcome books for review on archaeology and associated research. Please send books to the Reviews Editor, Dr Madeleine Hummler, at Antiquity, King's Manor, York YO1 7EP, UK. E-mail: mrh106@york.ac.uk.
