

Research & Training Support

S. Furness, Jr. and his unique role in establishing the Mershon Center.

The deadline for the award is October 1, 1979. Since publication by the Ohio State University Press is a part of the award, submission of the manuscript to, or acceptance by, another publisher constitutes disqualification. Manuscripts will be judged by the Mershon Center Editorial Board on the basis of relevance to the award subject and clarity of exposition. For further information or submission of manuscripts, write to Publications Office, Mershon Center, Ohio State University, 1712 Neil Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

Announcement of Awards

DACOR Fellowship Award

Kevin M. Generous, a 1979 graduate of George Washington University, has been awarded a graduate fellowship of $4,500 for one year of advanced study in international affairs by the Diplomatic and Consular Officers Retired (DACOR) Educational and Welfare Foundation. The award, the S. Pinkney Tuck Memorial Fellowship, honors Mr. Tuck, who concluded a long and distinguished career in the foreign service with service as U.S. Ambassador to Egypt. Mr. Generous will take his fellowship at the George Washington University School of Public and International Affairs.

SSRC-ACLS Fellowships and Grants

The Social Science Research Council and the American Council of Learned Societies has announced the following fellowships and grants:

International Doctoral Research Fellowship

Jean Bush Aden, Cornell University
Caridad de Moya, Yale University
Catherine A. Esser, Cornell University
Miriam A. Golden, Cornell University

International Postdoctoral Research

Kenneth W. Grundy, Case Western Reserve University
Bohdan R. Bociurkiw, Carlton University
Melvin Croan, University of Wisconsin
Gerald L. Curtis, Columbia University
Margaret A. McKean, Duke University
James W. White, University of North Carolina
David Collier, University of California, Berkeley
Noel Kaplowitz, Mills College
Myron Weiner, M.I.T.
Jnanabrata Bhattacharyya, Southern Illinois University
James G. Manor, University of Leicester

Council on Foreign Relations 1978-79 International Affairs Fellowship Program

The Council on Foreign Relations has announced the following 1978-79 International Affairs Fellowship Program Fellows: Linda P. Brady, Goucher College; Thomas P. Cox, United Nations Development Program; Terry L. Diebel, Georgetown University; Julian Gresser, University of Hawaii; George E. Hudson, Wittenberg College; Bruce R. Kuniholm, Duke University; Susan K. Purcell, University of California, Los Angeles; Barbara Stallings, University of Wisconsin; and James Wunsch, Creighton University.

Hoover Presidential Library Association 1979 Scholars

Eleven historians and political scientists have been named Hoover Scholars for 1979 by the Herbert Hoover Presidential Library Association, Inc., according to Donald E. Johnson, president of the West Branch educational foundation.

The prestigious awards provide research support to scholars investigating the public career of President Herbert Hoover or national public policy during the Hoover period, 1921-33, and utilizing the resources of the Herbert Hoover Presidential Library and Museum here. They were established in 1979 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Mr. Hoover's inauguration as president. This year also marks the 25th anniversary of the Association.

Hoover Scholars receiving major fellowships, which range to an annual maximum of $10,000 are Alice-Catherine Carls, Sterling (KS) College, and William G. Robbins, Oregon State University.

Named to receive grants-in-aid, ranging to $1,000 per individual, are Guy Alchon, University of Iowa; Marc Reed Anderberg, Macalester College; Rodney P. Carlisle, Rutgers University; John M. Carroll, Lamar University; Leonard Dinnerstein, University of Arizona; Kenneth O'Reilly, Marquette University; William E. Pemberton, University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse; Stephen G. Rabe, University of Texas-Dallas; and Elliot A. Rosen, Rutgers University.

Information regarding the Association's Fellowship and Grant-in-Aid Program may be obtained by writing Chairman, Fellowship and Grants Committee, Hoover Presidential Library Association, P.O. Box 696, West Branch, Iowa 52358.

National Intelligence Study Center Awards

The National Intelligence Study Center has announced several award winners for its prizes for the best book, scholarly article and journalistic piece by a U.S. citizen on the subject of the role of intelligence in U.S. national decision-making and security. The selection committee for the awards was composed of Jules Davids of Georgetown University and Walter Pforzheimer of the Defense Intelligence School.

The purpose of these awards—and of NISC itself—is to foster a better public understanding of the historical role and current functions of our intelligence agencies and of the vital contribution made by the intelligence community to national policymaking, defense, arms control, and the maintenance of peace.

For this first year, 1978, the committee and the NISC Board decided to split the prize on the book award between Allen Weinstein, author of Perjury, a book on the Hiss case, and Joseph E. Persico, author of Piercing the Reich, a book on the German clandestine operations program of the Office of Strategic Services. They each received $750.

An additional award was given to Richard K. Betts of the Brookings Institution, whose scholarly article, "Analysis, War and Decision: Why Intelligence Failures Are Inevitable," appeared in World Politics, 31, No. 1 (October 1978).

The awards committee did not believe that any newspaper articles in 1978 were worthy of an award so that money was added to the amount set aside for the book award and two prizes are being given, as indicated.

1979-80 Conference on German Politics Internship and Scholar-in-Residence Awards

The Conference Group on German Politics (CGGP), an independent organization of scholars who devote a major portion of their work to the study of German and European affairs, has appointed interns and scholars-in-residence for the 1979-1980 period, with the cooperation of the offices involved. The programs are supported by the CGGP with assistance from the offices and travel assistance from the Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst (DAAD), Bonn and New York.

Interns

Internships aim at combining study with contributions to the work of the office. Interns spend periods in a German or other West European governmental or quasi-governmental office. These awards are generally for students or younger scholars or governmental officials.

The following appointments have been made for 1979-1980:

Alane Harrington, B.A. candidate in German and International Studies, University of New Hampshire, Informationszentrum Berlin.

Kristia Hetherington, B.A. German, M.A. Political Science, University of Kansas, Informationszentrum Berlin.

Mary Nash Kelly, B.A. candidate in Politics, Wake Forest University, North Carolina, Informationszentrum Berlin.

Alice Pilz, B.A. candidate in Political Science and German, University of Illinois, Urbana, Wissenschaftszentrum Berlin.

Scholars-in-Residence

This program aims at providing scholars or officials an opportunity for intensive observation of the activities of German offices in order to stimulate research planning or gain experience relevant to their teaching or work. A contribution to the work of the office is not expected, nor is the interest of the grantee to be limited by a specific research project. Awards are generally for periods up to two months.

The following appointment has been made for 1979-1980:

Erik Spykman, J.D. candidate, University of Notre Dame Law School (placement tentative).

The CGGP Intern and Scholar Selection Committee is composed of Professor Werner Feld, University of New Orleans, Chairman; Professor Gerard Braunthal, Massachusetts; CGGP Chairman George Romoser, New Hampshire; and former intern D. Brent Smith, Harvard.

Rockefeller Foundation Humanities Fellowships

The Rockefeller Foundation has named five political scientists among its 1979 Humanities Fellowship awardees. They are: Charles R. Beltz, Swarthmore College; Brian M. Berry, University of Chicago; Bernard E. Brown, City University of New York; Mark Kesselman, Columbia University; and Gail W. Lapidus, University of California, Berkeley.

National Council for Soviet and Eastern Europe Research Awards

The National Council has concluded 24 research contracts allocating a total of $840,672 to proposals for research on the USSR and Eastern Europe submitted in its 1978 Program. Negotiations are underway for four additional contracts, and the Trustees of the Council have conditionally approved three more proposals for contracts if funds become available. The investigators, their institutional affiliation, the project titles, the contracting institutions, and the allotted amounts in that order are listed below for all research contracts awarded as of the date of this announcement.

Robert Axelrod, University of Michigan, "Politics and Deception in the Soviet Press," University of Michigan, $18,166.

Alexander Benningsen, University of Chicago; Rasma Karklins, University of Chicago, "Ethnic Relations in the USSR," University of Chicago, $44,095.

Abram Bergson, Harvard University, "The Soviet Economy to the Year 2000," Harvard University, $24,600.

Joseph Berliner, Brandeis University; Barney Schwalberg, Brandeis University; Christopher Davis, University of Birmingham, United Kingdom, "The Economics of Soviet Social Institutions," Harvard University, $74,684.

Research & Training Support

Seweryn Bialer, Columbia University, "The Politics of Change in the Soviet Union," Columbia University, $20,832.

Yaroslav Bilinsky, University of Delaware; Tonu Parming, University of Maryland, "The Helsinki Watch Committees in the Soviet Republics," University of Delaware, $33,660.

Cole Blasier, University of Pittsburgh, "Soviet Relations with Latin America," University of Pittsburgh, $51,108.

Daniel Bond, SRI International-Wharton Econometric Forecasting Associates, "Study of Soviet Research on Multi-Regional Modeling," International Research and Exchanges Board, $18,720.

Morris Bornstein, University of Michigan, "Pricing of Research and Development Services in the USSR," University of Michigan, $25,352.

Paul Cocks, Stanford University, "The Role of the Party in Soviet Science and Technology Policy," Stanford University, $22,740.

Vera Dunham, City University of New York-Queens College, "The Worker and the Soviet System," Columbia University, $27,216.

Gregory Grossman, University of California, Berkeley, "A Workshop and a Conference on the Second Economy of the USSR," University of California, Berkeley, $74,928.

Edward Hewett, University of Texas at Austin, "A Theoretical Approach to CPE Macro Models and an Experimental Application for Hungary," University of Texas at Austin, $39,381.

Franklyn Holzman, Tufts University, "U.S.-Soviet Economic Relations," Tufts University, $30,000.

Holland Hunter, Haverford College, "Testing Soviet Economic Policies, 1928-1941," Haverford College, $32,400.

Christopher Jones, Marquette University, "Perfecting Mechanisms of the Warsaw Pact," Harvard University, $27,738.

Arcadius Kahan, University of Chicago; D. Gale Johnson, University of Chicago, "East European Agriculture," University of Chicago, $41,017.

Peter Maggs, University of Illinois; Donald Barry, Lehigh University; Gordon Smith, University of South Carolina, "Soviet and East European Law and the 'Scientific-Technical Revolution,'" University of Illinois, Urbana, $33,000.

Michael Marrese, Northwestern University; Jan Vanous, University of British Columbia, "Costs and Benefits of Soviet Trade with Eastern Europe," Northwestern University, $56,645.

Boris Rumer, Harvard University, "The Dynamics of the Capital Coefficient of USSR Industrial Output," Harvard University, $32,087.

David Segal, University of Maryland; Janet Schwartz, George Mason University, "Military Service and Civilian Employment in the Soviet Union," University of Maryland, $48,000.

Robert Stuart, Rutgers University; Paul Gregory, University of Houston, "Fertility and Labor Supply," Transecon, Incorporated, $24,202.

Elizabeth Valkenier, Columbia University, "Soviet-LDC Relations in an Interdependent World Economy," Columbia University, $26,361.

Nils Wessell, Lafayette College, "Ground Rules for Soviet and American Involvement in Regional Conflicts," Foreign Policy Research Institute, Incorporated, $13,740.

Has Your Department Joined The APSA DEPARTMENTAL SERVICES PROGRAM?

Now over 500 member departments receive:

- Directories
- Guides
- Reports
- Special services

For further information and membership forms, write:

Departmental Services Program
American Political Science Association
1527 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20036

SETUPS*
are
Supplementary Empirical Teaching Units in Political Science
on

Topics taught in courses on American Politics, Comparative Politics and World Politics. SETUPS introduce students to data analysis and to using computers for political research.

Each SETUPS Includes a Monograph and a Dataset

- The monograph is a 5½" x 8½" paperback of approximately 100 pages with:
 1. A substantive essay on the topic.
 2. Analytical exercises.
 3. Instructions about how to do the exercises.
 4. Suggestions for further readings and exercises.
 5. A codebook for the dataset.
- The dataset is drawn from data collected for one or more recent research studies in political science.

TITLES
American Politics

SETUPS for courses in American Government, Political Behavior, Methodology, and Public Policy.

- Voting Behavior: The 1976 Election*, by Bruce D. Bowen, C. Anthony Broh, Charles L. Prysby.
Political Socialization Across the Generations, by Paul Allen Beck, Jere W. Bruner, L. Douglas Dobson.
Political Participation, by F. Christopher Arterton, Harlan Hahn.
The Supreme Court in American Politics: Policy Through Law, by John Paul Ryan, C. Neal Tate.
U.S. Energy, Environment and Economic Problems: A Public Policy Simulation, by Barry Hughes.
Representation in the United States Congress: 1973, by Ray A. Geigle and Peter J. Hartjens.
The Dynamics of Political Budgeting: A Public Policy Simulation, by Marvin K. Hoffman.
The Fear of Crime, by Wesley G. Skogan and William R. Klecka.

Cross-National and World Politics

- Comparative Voting Behavior*, by Herbert B. Asher, Bradley Richardson.
Comparative Budgeting: Policy and Process, by John Creighton Campbell and John M. Echols.
The Arab-Israeli Conflict: A Decision-Making Game, by Karen Ann Feste.
Are Political Values Really Changing? by Charles Taylor.
Comparing Political Parties, by Robert Harmel with Kenneth Janda.

To Order SETUPS

Order the SETUPS monographs from the American Political Science Association through your bookstore. Ask your bookstore to include your name when they place the SETUPS order with APSA. When we confirm the bookstore order, we shall send you a data specification form if your school does not have the appropriate SETUPS dataset already.

SETUPS datasets are prepared and distributed by the Inter-University Consortium for Political and Social Research. SETUPS data can be ordered for use with SPSS, OSIRIS or as card image.

Each SETUPS will cost $3.50. Lower prices are arranged for bulk orders.

*SETUPS were developed originally by faculty in workshops supported by grants from the National Science Foundation to the American Political Science Association and hosted by the Inter-University Consortium for Political and Social Research. New SETUPS are being written by social scientists working at their own institutions.