

Instructions for contributors

MIH serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship in intellectual history and its related fields, from the period of 1650 to the present. MIH concerns itself primarily with apprehending the contextual origins and receptions of texts in order to recover their historical meanings. But we understand 'texts' in the broadest sense, so as to encompass multiple forms of intellectual and cultural expression. These include, but are not limited to, political thought, philosophy, religion, literature, both the social sciences and the natural sciences, music, architecture, and the visual arts.

1. SUBMISSIONS

Submissions should be made online at <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/mih>. For enquiries please email Modern.Intellectual.History@dartmouth.edu.

Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished (even in a language other than English) and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to Cambridge University Press.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright for worldwide publication in all forms and media, including electronic publication, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

2. MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

Contributors must follow the layout and stylistic conventions of MIH. Detailed Instructions for contributors can be obtained from the Web at http://journals.cambridge.org/journal_ModernIntellectualHistory.

The recommended length of articles is 10,000–12,000 words including footnotes. The recommended length of review essays is 5,000 words including footnotes.

Articles should be written in English. Spelling may follow either British or American convention but must be consistent.

Contributors should submit an electronic copy in Word as an email attachment.

3. PROOFS

Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

Copying

This journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, USA.
