

Père H.M. Féret, O.P. appears once again in print with a short study of the relations between St. Peter and St. Paul at Antioche and Jerusalem. He analyses with characteristic frankness and detail the texts of the Acts and the Epistle to the Galatians in which the apparent conflict between the two great apostles is recounted. He then sets these texts in their historic context, showing the different problems the two saints were faced with. The working out and the solution of this difference between the two great leaders makes fascinating and fruitful reading.

L'Eau Vive series now includes the second edition of P. Paul Philippe's La Très Sainte Vierge et le Sacerdoce. The book first appeared in 1946, and it provides the priest with a true key to his devotion to our Lady as his Mother and the inspirer of his spiritual life. It is well worth its new edition.

“THAT THE CHURCH MAY SPREAD AND INCREASE: this is the intention for which we must offer our prayers and our labours”, says Pope Pius XII in his encyclical on the Mystical Body.

The work of the Mill Hill Fathers in Africa, India, the Far East and New Zealand, has this one aim. You can work with them for the spread of the Church by fostering vocations to the missionary priesthood.
