

MEET THE NEW AUTHORITY

For the first time in four decades, there is an authoritative, up-to-date survey of American literature to turn to. And to read.
Columbia Literary History of the United States.

“THOROUGHLY UP-TO-DATE in understanding and attitude, this new literary history is refreshingly contentious and crammed with bright and bold revaluations. It is intellectually challenging and socially and politically provocative, and it is hard to see how conventional views of America’s literary past and present are going to survive it.”

—PAUL FUSSELL, author of The Great War and Modern Memory

“IN THIS AGE OF CONTENTION when literary theorists, critics, and scholars argue over ‘literary’ and historians debate over ‘historicism,’ the creators of this newest study of our literary tradition have moved bravely ahead. There is only the third work of this scope to appear in seventy years....Commend its editors and contributors for this remarkable achievement.”

—WILLARD THORP, coeditor, Spiller, Thorp, Johnson, and Canby, Literary History of the United States

“SOME LITERARY HISTORIES end up on one’s shelf, untouched except to check an occasional date. I think that this one, by contrast, will play a significant part in the continuing debate and discussion that keeps American literature alive.”

—WILLIAM PRITCHARD, author of Frost: A Literary Life Reconsidered

A SELECTION OF THE BOOK-OF-THE-MONTH CLUB AND THE READERS’ SUBSCRIPTION.

1,296 pages, $59.95

TO ORDER YOUR COPY, send a check to the address below, including $3.00 for postage and handling. Or call (914) 591-9111 to order by phone. Credit cards accepted.

 COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS
136 South Broadway, Irvington, NY 10533

Adventures of Huckleberry Finn

MARK TWAIN

Edited by Walter Blair and Victor Fischer with other members of the Mark Twain Project

Scholarly edition—This is the first and only comprehensive, critical edition of Huck Finn ever published. It restores the text to its pristine condition; it gathers together all the illustrations commissioned by Mark Twain; and it provides an astonishing wealth of new information and previously inaccessible documents about the book that will prove indispensable to all future scholarship. $65.00

The Works of Mark Twain, volume 8

Nationalism and Minor Literature

James Clarence Mangan and the Emergence of Irish Cultural Nationalism

DAVID LLOYD

"An astute and dedicated scholarly understanding of mid-nineteenth century Irish literature, Irish literary history, and their European as well as English socio-literary milieus....A significant contribution to recent critical attempts to develop a theory of minor literature....A splendid critical performance."

—Louis A. Renza, Dartmouth College

$32.00

The New Historicism: Studies in Cultural Poetics, 3

Pastoral and Ideology

Virgil to Valéry

ANNABEL PATTERSON

"Patterson brings her own compelling interest in social change to an exemplary study of the interpretive traditions surrounding Virgil's Eclogues...The result is a splendid melding of literary analysis with social commentary—and an important book."

—Stanley Stewart,

University of California, Riverside

$45.00

Medieval Allegories of Jesus' Parables

STEPHEN L. WAILES

Throughout the Middle Ages the parables of Jesus were interpreted as literary allegories with the assumption that every literal detail might hold a spiritual meaning, and that most did. As a result, a variety of reading flourished. Wailes has done a service to modern critics and Biblical exegetes by analyzing all influential medieval interpretations.
$35.00

Virginia Woolf and the Real World

ALEX ZWERDLING

New in paper—"Buried beneath piles of criticism
Virginia Woolf has at last been dug out by Alex Zwerdling. The most enlightened account of the real woman to appear for years."

—Noel Annan, The Observer

$8.95 paper

Winner, 1986 Bay Area Book Reviewers Award

NEW
FROM

CALIFORNIA

The Collected Plays and Writings on Theater

KAROL WOJTYLA

Translated by Boleslaw Taborski

This work gathers together for the first time five of the six plays written by Karol Wojtyla (Pope John Paul II) along with his writings on the Rhapsodic Theater.

"Wojtyla's writings deal with the 'inner' drama of human existence, he is concerned not so much with external events as with man's soul."

—From the Introduction

$35.00

Melodrama Unveiled American Theater and Culture, 1800-1850

DAVID GRIMSTED

With a foreword by Lawrence W. Levine

New in paper—"Having distilled an immense quantity and range of research into a succinctly and clearly written account, David Grimsted has substantially raised the quality of historical writing about the theater in America."

—Journal of American History

$8.95 paper

The Works of John Dryden

Volumes V and VI: POEMS

The Works of Virgil in English 1697

This critical edition in 2 volumes is textually the most accurate available and sets the work against the tradition of Virgil in English which Dryden inherited. $55.00 each volume

Volumes V and VI in the California edition of the Works of John Dryden

At bookstores or call toll-free 800-822-6657. Visa and MasterCard only.

University of California Press
Berkeley 94720

American Media and Mass Culture

Left Perspectives

DONALD LAZERE, Editor

From Superman to rock 'n' roll, from Donald Duck to the TV news, from romance novels to the use of doublespeak in advertising, from spectator sports to country music—here are lively essays offering exciting alternative views of contemporary media from Marxist, feminist, and other left perspectives.

$48.00 cloth, $15.95 paper

Comic Persuasion

Moral Structure in British Comedy from Shakespeare to Stoppard

ALICE RAYNER

Rayner focuses on the works of Shakespeare, Jonson, Wycherley, Steele, Shaw, and Stoppard to study the strategies by which comedy engages moral material. She studies how a playwright weighs the values of use and delight to persuade an audience. $25.00

The Hemingway Review

Special Anniversary Issues:
Spring 1988—Spanish Civil War
Fall 1989—A Farewell to Arms

Subscription rates:
$6 per year for individuals;
$9 for libraries and overseas.

The Faulkner Journal

Co-editors:
James B. Carothers (Univ. of Kansas)
John T. Matthews (Boston Univ.)

Subscription rates:
$9 per year for individuals;
$15 for libraries and overseas

The Hemingway Review and The Faulkner Journal are published twice each year (fall and spring) at Ohio Northern University.

Send articles or subscriptions for either journal to:

Charles M. Oliver
Department of English
Ohio Northern University
Ada, OH 45810

BLACKWELL

Faustus and the Censor

The English Faust Book and Marlowe's
Dr Faustus

WILLIAM EMPSON

The last book from one of the great literary critics of the century: an outrageous and iconoclastic work that not only questions the integrity of Marlowe's text as we have it, but challenges our familiarity with the Faust legend as well.

240 pages, $24.95 (0 631 15675 5)

French Feminist Thought

A Reader

Edited by TORIL MOI

Introducing the English-speaking reader to some of the major elements of recent French feminist thinking on politics, creativity and sexual difference, this anthology includes selections from the works of Simone de Beauvoir, Annie de Pisan, Anne Tristan, Christine Delphy, Arlette Farge, Elisabeth Badinter, Michele Montrelay, Michele le Doeuff and Sarah Kofman.

272 pages, hardback $34.95 (0 631 14972 4)
paperback $17.95 (0 631 14973 2)

A Life of Emily Brontë

EDWARD CHITHAM

This is the first major biography of Emily Brontë to appear for twenty years. Edward Chitham makes full use of hitherto neglected material, recent advances in Brontë scholarship and improved poem texts to provide a fresh and revealing portrait of Emily's life and art.

296 pages, $24.95 (0 631 14751 9)

Feminist Practice and Poststructuralist Theory

CHRIS WEEDON

What do the theories of poststructuralism have to offer contemporary feminism? In a discussion which assumes no prior knowledge of these complex theoretical issues, Chris Weedon makes the case that poststructuralism is the theory with the most explanatory and practical relevance to feminism, and examines the possibilities for a feminist practice.

200 pages, hardback $34.95 (0 631 15069 2)
paperback $14.95 (0 631 15188 5)

Basil Blackwell

108 Cowley Road, Oxford OX4 1JF
Suite 1503, 432 Park Avenue South, New York NY 10016.
Toll-free ordering: 1-800-638-3030 (USA)

No Man's Land

*The Place of the Woman Writer in the Twentieth Century
Volume I: The War of the Words*

Sandra M. Gilbert and Susan Gubar

With this powerful and provocative new book the authors of the classic The Madwoman in the Attic launch a landmark three-volume feminist overview of modern literature in England and America. In Volume One Gilbert and Gubar survey the social, literary, and linguistic conflicts between men and women that mark modernism, examining the work of writers from Alfred Lord Tennyson and Charlotte Bronte to Robert Lowell and May Sarton.

"A radical re-presentation of the legends our literary fathers 'taught' us in school. . . . Fast, funny, profound in its theoretical assertions, and deliciously irreverent in its asides." —Joyce Carol Oates $22.95

John Dryden and His World

James Anderson Winn

"A superb biography of England's first great man of letters, full of new facts and sharp insights on the age and the man—above all, readable!" —Maynard Mack

"Winn's ambitious biography draws together what is known about Dryden's life from public records, reminiscences of friends and contemporaries, and sparse revelations in the works. Other good biographies have been published, but few have captured Dryden's era so well. Winn's scholarship is excellent. . . . Highly recommended." —Library Journal 4.6 illus. $29.95

Rossetti and His Circle

Max Beerbohm
edited by N. John Hall

A handsome new edition of the famed caricaturist's masterpiece of comic art, featuring witty sketches of Dante Gabriel Rossetti, Holman Hunt, Ford Madox Brown, Swinburne, Tennyson, William Morris, Ruskin, Elizabeth Siddal, and others. The drawings, newly reproduced from the originals, are supplemented with additional caricatures of related subjects and related short pieces by Beerbohm—some from his unfinished and unpublished novel about the Pre-Raphaelites. 6 b/w + 30 color illus. $19.95

Yale University Press
Dept. 607
92A Yale Station
New Haven, CT 06520

Languages at Middlebury

Summer in Vermont

A total linguistic and cultural environment is created on campus for the study of Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Russian and Spanish from beginning to advanced levels. Graduate and post-graduate programs are offered in the five western languages.

New Technologies at Middlebury

In the summer of 1988, the Middlebury College Language Schools in cooperation with CALICO and PICS will host a five-week program of workshops and conferences for teachers on the uses of computers and video in the teaching of foreign languages. The program will combine introductory hands-on experience with two specialized conferences for more advanced users of computer and video technology.

Academic Year Abroad

Study abroad during the academic year at the Middlebury schools in Florence, Paris, Madrid, Mainz and Moscow. Junior year and graduate programs are open to all qualified students.

Students may apply for a summer at any level or for a program abroad. Contact (please indicate language preference):

Language Schools – PMLA
Middlebury College
Middlebury, VT 05753
(802) 388-3711

Shakespeare and Jonson Jonson and Shakespeare

By Russ McDonald

This brilliant new volume is not merely a history of the centuries-old rivalry of the two greatest playwrights of the English Renaissance but a careful reconciliation, successfully challenging the artificial division of the works of Shakespeare and Jonson. May 1988. ca. 240 pages, introduction, notes. $19.95 (tentative)

Distinguishing Jonson

Imitation, Rivalry, and the Direction of a Dramatic Career

By George E. Rowe

Distinguishing Jonson traces Ben Jonson's attempt to create for himself a literary identity—a "name"—by distinguishing himself from other writers. Rowe surveys Jonson's relations with other playwrights and actors, with his patrons and audiences, showing him to have been a genius as opportunist. March 1988. xii, 220 pages, preface, notes, works cited, index. $22.95 (tentative)

Also of interest

A Study of Ben Jonson, by Algernon Charles Swinburne, edited and with an introduction by Howard B. Norland. $3.65 paper

Bartholomew Fair, by Ben Jonson, edited by Edward P. Partridge. $5.95 paper

Catiline, by Ben Jonson, edited by W. F. Bolton and Jane Gardner. $18.95 cloth

Epicoene; or, The Silent Woman, by Ben Jonson, edited by L. Beaurline. $16.95 cloth, $5.95 paper

Every Man in His Humour. A Parallel-Text Edition of the 1601 Quarto and the 1616 Folio, by Ben Jonson, edited by J. W. Lever. $24.95 cloth

The Staple of News, by Ben Jonson, edited by Devra Rowland Kifer. $17.95 cloth

NEBRASKA

University of Nebraska Press · 901 N 17 · Lincoln 68588-0520

The University of Kansas Graduate Studies in English

■ For the M.A., three options: traditional literary-period approach; language, composition, and criticism; creative writing.

■ For the Ph.D.: firm grounding in British and American literature and in critical and composition theory. A creative-writing dissertation is possible.

The Department, praised in the most recent edition of the Selective Guide to Colleges, has an excellent record of placing its students and works vigorously to assist students in finding satisfactory employment in both academic and "alternative" careers.

In addition to an annual Conference on Composition and Literature, the Department sponsors such events as the recent symposium entitled Literary Theory, Critical Practice, and the Classroom and a conference entitled Victoria's Jubilees: A Centennial Reconsideration, and (as co-sponsor) the meeting of the International Association for Philosophy and Literature. A semester-long symposium on drama is planned for fall 1988.

Financial assistance is available through graduate teaching assistantships and a few highly competitive Graduate School Honors, Summer, and Dissertation Fellowships. Some advanced students also work in the laboratory for computer-assisted instruction, in the Writing Center, and as administrative interns. There is, in addition, the opportunity to work on journals edited by members of the Department: American Studies, Cottonwood, The Faulkner Journal, and Research Opportunities in Renaissance Drama. Many GTAs teach in the summer.

For further information, call or write:
G. Douglas Atkins, Coordinator of Graduate Studies
Department of English
3114 Wescoe Hall
The University of Kansas
Lawrence, Kansas 66045
(913) 864-4520

Winter Reading from Harvard University Press

Language in Literature

Roman Jakobson

Edited by Krystyna Pomorska and Stephen Rudy

For the first time, a comprehensive collection of all of Jakobson's major essays on the intertwining of language and literature is presented here in English.

"Roman Jakobson has given us a marvelous gift: he has given linguistics to artists." — Roland Barthes

Belknap

$25.00

Tragic Ways of Killing a Woman

Nicole Loraux

In the Greek tragedies, unlike in the ordinary life of ancient Greece, women die violently and through violence master their own fate. In a subtle reading of these powerful and ambiguous texts, Loraux elicits an array of insights into Greek attitudes toward death, sexuality, and gender.

"This is a brilliant and memorable study, displaying great imagination, learning, and insight."

— Bernard Williams

$17.95

Self-Discovery and Authority in Afro-American Narrative

Valerie Smith

In this perceptive exploration of the relationship between autobiography and fiction in Afro-American writing, Smith argues that black writers—from the authors of 19th-century slave narratives to contemporary novelists—affirm and legitimize their psychological autonomy by telling the stories of their lives.

$22.50

The Poetics of Impersonality

T.S. Eliot and Ezra Pound

Maud Ellmann

"The local analyses, the verbal felicities, the luminous details of Maud Ellmann's book are striking and inventive. The great strength of the book . . . lies in the productive convergence of post-structuralist theory and a scrupulous historical sense."

— Michael Levenson, University of Virginia

$22.50

A History of English Literature

Alastair Fowler

This is a delightful introduction to English literature, engaging, notably readable, enlivened by the opinions, enthusiasms, and wisdom of a fine scholar-critic. Ranging from the Middle Ages to the present, Fowler approaches the writings of each period via the principal literary forms rather than using the standard author-by-author treatment, making this a far cry from the usual survey of literary history.

$30.00

Collected Works of Velimir Khlebnikov

Volume I: Letters and Theoretical Writings

Translated by Paul Schmidt

Edited by Charlotte Douglas

The 117 letters published here for the first time in English reveal an ebullient, humane, impractical, but deliberate working artist; the theoretical writings frame the creative output of the man dubbed the "King of Time" by his fellow Futurists.

Collected Works of Velimir Khlebnikov

$35.00

79 Garden Street
Cambridge, MA 02138

UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO

Literacy Conference

June 9, 10, & 11, 1988

The Relationship Between Composition Instruction and Current Literary Theory

KEY SPEAKERS:

David Bartholomae,
Chair, College Composition and Communication, University of Pittsburgh

David Bartholomae, "Working on Texts: Composition, Criticism, and the Undergraduate Curriculum"

Ann E. Berthoff,
University of Massachusetts, Boston

Ann E. Berthoff, "J.A. Richards and the Concept of Literacy"

Patricia Bizzell,
Holy Cross

Patricia Bizzell, "Marxism and Composition"

Donald McQuade,
University of California, Berkeley

Donald McQuade, "Talking About the Composition Curriculum"

For information contact: Brenda Schildgen, Ph.D. College of Liberal Arts & Sciences
Expository Writing Program University of San Francisco
San Francisco, CA 94117
Phone: (415) 666-6848

SUMMER '88: THEORY IN ROME

Temple University Presents The Temple Seminars in Art and Culture

The Temple Seminars in Art and Culture are designed to bring together the disciplines of aesthetics and culture critique and to further the dialogue between American and European scholars in these fields. This summer's seminar will consider "Difference and Cultural Practice," meeting June 13 to July 22.

Guest Faculty:
Pierre Bourdieu
Franco Moretti
Jacqueline Rose
Leo Steinberg

Faculty:
Timothy Corrigan
Alan Singer
Susan Stewart
William Van Wert

Tuition and Program Fee for Six Graduate Credits
(56 hours of instruction):
In-State (Pennsylvania): $1460.
Out-of-State: $1718.

This year's seminar welcomes applications from advanced undergraduates, graduate and post-doctoral students in fields such as literature, film studies, philosophy, and social theory. We will take up the question of difference as a structural feature of culture in theory and practice. All classes are taught in English at Temple's Villa Caproni, Rome.

For further information and application,
write or call:
Alan Singer, Director
Temple Seminars in Art and Culture
Department of English, Box 2
Temple University
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19122
USA
215-787-7246

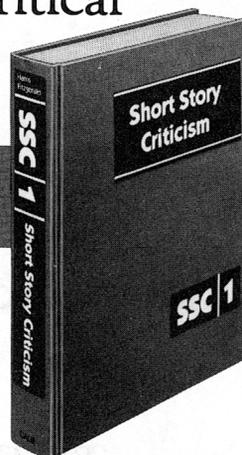

Gale Presents Two New Series for Critical Appraisals of Short Stories and Medieval and Classical Literature

Devoted solely to the authors of short fiction

Short Story Criticism

Now when you need to locate critical information on short fiction, you can find it in one convenient source: Gale's new Short Story Criticism series. Covering short story writers from around the world, from all time periods, each annual volume will provide critical evaluations of about 15-20 authors.

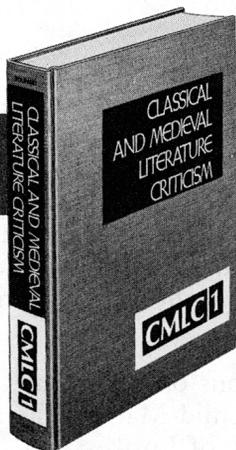

Entries begin with a critical introduction that discusses the importance of short fiction to the author's career, followed by a list of the author's major short story collections. The main part of the entry consists of chronologically arranged critical excerpts (less than 20% drawn from other Gale criticism series) representing the full range of critical response the short stories have received.

Authors covered in Volume 1 include:

- Sherwood Anderson
- J.G. Ballard
- John Cheever
- G.K. Chesterton
- Fedor Dostoevski
- William Faulkner
- Mary Wilkins Freeman
- Ernest Hemingway
- Guy de Maupassant
- Herman Melville
- Flannery O'Connor
- Edgar Allan Poe
- J.D. Salinger
- James Thurber
- Jean Toomer
- Eudora Welty

Edited by Laurie Lanzen Harris and Sheila Fitzgerald. 450 pages. $70.00/vol. (Volume 1 ready November 1987)

Appraisals of early literature from antiquity through 1400 Classical and Medieval Literature Criticism

This new series provides librarians, students, and researchers with an accessible source of carefully selected critical material on writers who lived from antiquity through the fourteenth century.

Each volume presents definitive overviews of four to six authors or works. Entries begin with an author or title heading that lists the author's full name, variant forms, and pseudonyms, with birth and death dates of the author, when known. This is followed by a biographical/historical introduction to the author or work written by Gale editors. The main part of the entry consists of critical excerpts, carefully selected to be representative of critical views from all periods of history, with emphasis on modern evaluations made during the past 100 years.

Entries also contain explanatory notes that provide background information on important critics, a list of the author's principal works, illustrations, author portraits when available, and a bibliography of additional sources for further study.

Author/works included in Volume 1 are:

- Apuleius
- Chanson de Roland
- Lady Murasaki (The Tale of the Genii)
- Beowulf
- Homer (The Illiad)
- Slovo o Polku Igoreve (The Song of Igor's Campaign)

Edited by Dennis Poupard and Jelena Kronick. 450 pages. $80.00. (Ready December 1987)

For Fast Service — Order Tollfree: 800-223-GALE

Gale Research Company Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226

All Gale books are available on 60-day approval. Standing Orders receive a 5% discount. Customers outside the U.S. and Canada add 15%.

The School of Criticism and Theory at Dartmouth College announces its

TWELFTH SUMMER SESSION

June 20–July 29, 1988

Director: Michael Riffaterre, Columbia University
Faculty: Mary Ann Caws, The Graduate Center of the City University of New York
Thomas Greene, Yale University
Roberto González-Echevarría, Yale University
Nancy K. Miller, The Graduate Center of the City University of New York
Edward Said, Columbia University
Robert Stepto, Yale University

Those admitted to the School will work together as a community for six weeks to explore the most recent developments in literary and humanistic studies. Approximately sixty-five postdoctoral and graduate students of literature, the arts, the humanities, and the related social sciences will be accepted by the School. Tuition for the session is $1400. Applicants are eligible to compete for a small number of tuition scholarships and fellowships, and are urged to seek matching funds from their home institutions. The School of Criticism and Theory and Dartmouth College are especially committed to recruiting minority and women students.

Applications will be judged beginning March 1, 1988. Decisions on admissions and scholarships will be announced on a rolling basis beginning in mid-March. The final roster of the School is expected to be complete by the beginning of April.

For further information about the program and for application forms, write:

The School of Criticism and Theory
DARTMOUTH COLLEGE
104 Wentworth Hall · Box L · Hanover, NH 03755
Telephone: (603) 646-3756

The School of Criticism and Theory is under the direction of its Board of Senior Fellows:

M.H. Abrams (Honorary)	Geoffrey H. Hartman	Leonard B. Meyer
Hazard Adams	Barbara Johnson	Michael Riffaterre
Ralph Freedman	Murray Krieger (Honorary)	Richard Rorty
Northrop Frye (Honorary)	Julia Kristeva	Edward W. Said
Sandra Gilbert	Lawrence Lipking

Literary Criticism from Cambridge

Selected Prose of Alexander Pope

Paul Hammond, Editor

Alexander Pope, the foremost poet of early eighteenth-century England, was also a prolific prose writer. This anthology makes Pope's major works more widely available. $39.50 cloth

Henry Fielding

Simon Varey

This concise and lucid study provides an ideal introduction to the major work of Henry Fielding. $39.50 cloth $11.95 paper

The Faerie Queen

A Readers' Guide

Elizabeth Heale

This convenient up-to-date guide of Spenser's poem is designed as a consultative handbook, with each chapter devoted to a separate book of the poem.

$9.95 paper $39.50 cloth

The Romances of William Morris

Amanda Hodgson

Hodgson shows how the romances are an accurate reflection of Morris' attitudes toward art and imagination's place in society. $29.95 cloth

Wordsworth and the Worth of Words

Hugh Sykes Davies

Editors: John Kerrigan, Jonathan Wordsworth

Hugh Sykes Davies—novelist, poet, and distinguished literary critic—addresses Wordsworth's major poetry. A remarkable combination of analytic and empathic intelligence, this book will earn a place among the few essential studies of the poet. $49.50 cloth

John Keats

John Barnard

This reevaluation of all Keats' major poetry shows how it is both an oblique criticism of the dominant attitudes to literature, sexuality, religion, and politics, and a powerful critique of the claims of the imagination.

$11.95 paper $39.50 cloth

Post-Structuralist Readings of English Poetry

Richard Machin & Christopher Norris

Leading critics offer close examinations of well-known poetic works from the Renaissance and Romantic periods through the twentieth century.

$15.95 paper $49.50 cloth

At bookstores or order from

Cambridge University Press

32 East 57th Street, NY, NY 10022.

Cambridge toll-free numbers for orders only:

800-872-7423, outside NY State, 800-227-0247, NY State only.

MasterCard and Visa accepted.

LSU PRESS

On the Prejudices, Predilections, and Firm Beliefs of William Faulkner

Essays by CLEANTH BROOKS

These essays are vintage Brooks. The prose is, as always, felicitous, the manner modest and winning, the thought pertinent and rigorous. Despite the thematic diversity of the essays, the emphasis is ultimately the same: reading and rereading the novels of William Faulkner is a continuing pleasure as well as a challenge.

$16.95

James Dickey and the Gentle Ecstasy of Earth

A Reading of the Poems

ROBERT KIRSCHTEN

Robert Kirschten's study reveals a sure grasp of the philosophical principles of criticism as well as a wide range of reading, especially in the literature of Romanticism. This lucid examination gives us genuine insights into one of the country's premier poets.

$25.00

Innocence and Estrangement in the Fiction of Jean Stafford

MAUREEN RYAN

Innocence and Estrangement in the Fiction of Jean Stafford explores the irony, modernist complexity, and feminine perspective in Jean Stafford's three novels and in her more widely known short stories.

$25.00

Wallace Stevens' Supreme Fiction

A New Romanticism

JOSEPH CARROLL

Joseph Carroll provides an original and comprehensive interpretation of the development of Wallace Stevens' poetic career, using Stevens' concept of a "supreme fiction" as his guiding principle.

$37.50

The Development of Black Theater in America

From Shadows to Selves

LESLIE CATHERINE SANDERS

Leslie Sanders traces the development of black theater in America by examining the work of that theater's five most productive playwrights: Willis Richardson, Randolph Edmonds, Langston Hughes, LeRoi Jones, and Ed Bullins.

$25.00

The Obstinate Questionings of English Romanticism

L. J. SWINGLE

By placing anti-ideological Romantic theory on a much more secure foundation than it has previously enjoyed, L.J. Swingle has produced a work that will have a significant, lasting impact on studies of Romanticism.

$28.00

The Madame Bovary Blues

The Pursuit of Illusion in Nineteenth-Century French Fiction

STIRLING HAIG

Shedding new light on staple texts that have been studied and critiqued for over a century, The Madame Bovary Blues traces the common theme of the pursuit of illusion in several of the greatest works of nineteenth-century French fiction.

$25.00

Swinburne's Medievalism

A Study in Victorian Love Poetry

ANTONY H. HARRISON

Antony Harrison examines the central topic of love in Swinburne's poetry and suggests major literary backgrounds to his work and thought, areas that have largely been ignored until now.

$27.50

Louisiana State
University Press
Baton Rouge 70893

PENN STATE PRESS

Mallarmé, or the Poet of Nothingness

Jean-Paul Sartre

Translated and Introduced by Ernest Sturm

This study of the great modernist poet and his cloistered, nihilistic world shatters basic assumptions about 19th-century post-Romantic culture. Sturm's translation, which was four years in the making, now brings this unusual and rich work to the English-speaking reader. 182 pp. $22.50

After the Avant-Garde

Robert Boyers

Boyers' sharply focused essays on writers, film-makers, painters, and critics respond to the diversity of "events" that make up our cultural life and take as their central theme what the author calls "object loss"—a radical incapacity to think clearly about the objects that give a work point or focus. This incapacity, he argues, has introduced dishonesty and irrelevance into the critical theories and response patterns that are dominant today. 250 pp. $24.95

In Search of Italy

Foreign Writers in Northern Italy Since 1800

William M. Johnston

Major and minor writers since 1800 have praised the cities and sights of Northern Italy time and time again, but many of their writings have been lost to the modern reader. Now, assembled for the first time in any language, here are the best insights into the literary and cultural history of this adored land. The fresh vision, the apt metaphor, the sweep of imagination—and Northern Italy will never seem the same again. 224 pp. $24.95

Story, Text, and Scripture

Literary Interests in Biblical Narrative

Wesley A. Kort

Kort shows how literary interests in biblical matters hold the potential for altering our understandings not only of the nature and function of narrative, text, and canon, but also of the relation of literature to religion. 180 pp. $20.00

215 Wagner Building

University Park, PA 16802

(814) 865-1327

BEAST FABLE SOCIETY OF AMERICA

First International Congress

August 2—9, 1988 Agadir, Kingdom of Morocco

Call for Paper and for Submissions of Poetry and Fiction

Scholars, critics, and translators from all languages are invited to submit papers dealing with any aspect of the beast fable (and its sister genres). Submissions must be written in English. Areas of special interest include (though by no means are limited to) the following: the fable of Bidpai, the Book of Kalilah wa-Dimnah, the fables of Berechich ha-Nakdan, the fables of Teo Savory, Native American fables, Afro-American fables, Asian fables, and others. Poets and fiction writers may submit original fables as well. Papers previously read at other conferences or previously published cannot be considered.

One-page abstracts and/or proposals must be post-marked by March 31, 1988.

The First International Congress of the Beast Fable Society of America is sponsored by Northeast Missouri State University, Kirksville. In honor of our bicentennial friendship with Morocco, the Congress will be held in Agadir, Morocco. For $730.00, Society members and participants will receive: round-trip air transportation from New York, week-long accommodations at a 5-star de luxe hotel, breakfast and dinner daily, transfers, and taxes. Add-on fares from any city in the continental United States are available. For single occupancy, there is an extra charge of $90.00.

Address all correspondence to: Professor Benjamin Bennani, Division of Language and Literature, Northeast Missouri State University, Kirksville, MO 63501

Now—
Search the

MLA International Bibliography

- On CD-ROM with WILSONDISC™
- Online with WILSONLINE®

Your best source for bibliographic data on current scholarship in all modern languages is now available for fast, easy, affordable access through the WILSONDISC CD-ROM and WILSONLINE online retrieval systems. With supercoded descriptors that allow you to search by • themes • genres • performance media • literary techniques • national literatures • languages • and many other categories, the MLA International Bibliography is renowned for its unsurpassed coverage of modern literature as well as related fields, including television, film, and anthropology. Now you can access this same MLA data through the easy-to-use WILSONDISC and WILSONLINE systems, covering some 40,000 new records annually, for a total of more than a quarter of a million citations from January 1981 to date.

WILSONDISC CD-ROM

A state-of-the-art integrated retrieval system that allows both CD-ROM and unlimited online access for an affordable fixed price, WILSONDISC offers four access modes to accommodate users at all levels, bringing the MLA Bibliography to libraries of all types. Annual subscription $1,495.

WILSONLINE

Offering sophisticated search capabilities for information professionals and trained searchers, the WILSONLINE online retrieval system is the perfect medium for the fast, precise searching required by college and special libraries. Ask about our low hourly search rates.

To Order or for more information about searching the MLA Bibliography on WILSONDISC or WILSONLINE, call us toll-free 1-800-367-6770
In New York State call 1-800-462-6060; in Canada call collect 212-588-8400.

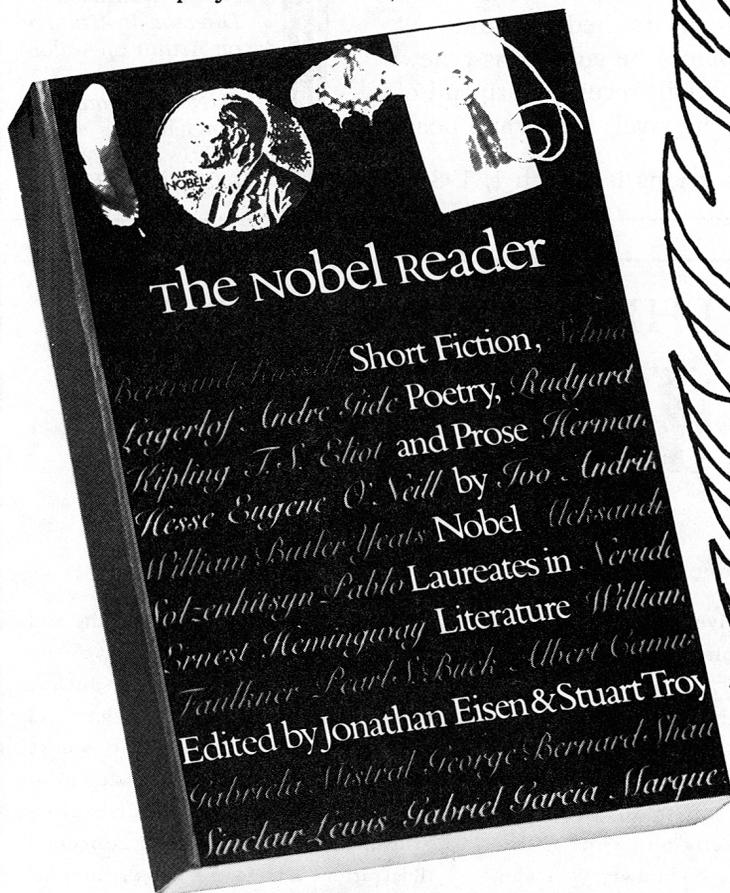

THE H.W. WILSON COMPANY

950 University Avenue, Bronx, New York 10452 • (212) 588-8400

45 short works from the literary giants of the 20th century

In 1900 Alfred Nobel instituted the prize that would honor the greatest voices in literature. Here is fiction from Faulkner, Hesse, Mann, Marquez, Soyinka, Tagore, Gide, Pirandello; poetry from Yeats, Kipling, Neruda; prose from Shaw, Russell; a little known play from O'Neill, and more.

RENÉ F.A. SULLY PRUDHOMME

The Appointment

RUDYARD KIPLING

Lispeth; Mandalay

SELMA LAGERLÖF

The Peace of God

RABINDRANATH TAGORE

The Cabuliwallah

HENRIK PONTOPPIDAN

Eagle's Flight

WILLIAM BUTLER YEATS

The Rose of the World; Stream and Sun

at Glendalough; Quarrel in Old Age

GEORGE BERNARD SHAW

The Religion of the Future

THOMAS MANN

The Infant Prodigy

SINCLAIR LEWIS

A Letter From the Queen

JOHN GALSWORTHY

The Consummation

LUIGI PIRANDELLO

A Breath of Air

EUGENE O'NEILL

Ile

PEARL S. BUCK

The Good Deed

GABRIELA MISTRAL

Drops of Gall;

Rodin's Thinker

HERMANN HESSE

Inside and Outside

ANDRÉ GIDE

The Return of the Prodigal Son

T.S. ELIOT

Song On a Portrait

(At Graduation 1905); Spleen

WILLIAM FAULKNER

Thrift

BERTRAND RUSSELL

Has Religion Made Useful Contributions to Civilization?

PÅR LAGERKVIST

The Myth of Mankind

ERNEST HEMINGWAY

Three Shots; Indian Camp

ALBERT CAMUS

The Renegade

BORIS PASTERNAK

The Nobel Prize

IVO ANDRIC

Thirst

JOHN STEINBECK

The Chrysanthemums

S.Y. AGNON

The Kerchief

SAMUEL BECKETT

The Calmative

ALEXANDER SOLZHENITSYN

The Ashes of a Poet;

In Yessenin Country;

Reflections; The Old Bucket;

A Journey Along the Oka

PABLO NERUDA

Gentleman Alone

ISAAC BASHEVIS SINGER

Short Friday

GABRIEL GARCIA MARQUEZ

Eva Is Inside Her Cat

JAROSLAV SIEFERT

'You Are Asking...';

Orangeade

WOLE SOYINKA

A Selection from The Man Died

Paperback, $12.95, now at your bookstore, or send check or money order to Crown Publishers, Inc., 225 Park Ave. South, N.Y., N.Y. 10003.
Please add $1.50 postage and handling. N.Y. and N.J. residents, add sales tax.

Clarkson N. Potter, Inc. A member of the Crown Publishing Group

Arthur of Avalon: Medieval and Modern an institute supported by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities

June 27-August 5, 1988
Center for Medieval and Early Renaissance Studies
State University of New York at Binghamton

The institute seeks participants who are full-time teachers of undergraduates at two-year colleges, four-year colleges, or universities in the United States. Participants may use the institute to renew and strengthen their knowledge of the Arthurian story in its medieval and modern manifestations or to develop the subject as a new area for teaching and study. They will receive a stipend of $3,000, which is intended to cover travel, room, and board.

The deadline for complete applications is March 1, 1988.

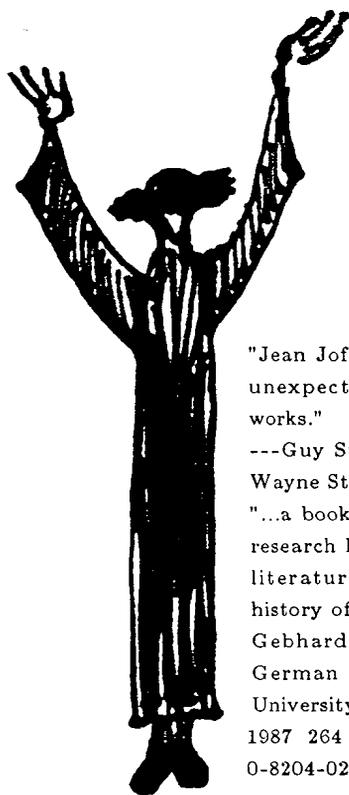

Faculty

Larry D. Benson
Howell Chickering
Maureen Fries
Douglas Kelly
Valerie M. Lagorio
Robin S. Oggins
Derek Pearsall
David M. Staines
William C. Voelkle
David Whitehouse

For further information and application forms, contact

Paul E. Szarmach
Director, Institute
on Arthur of Avalon
CEMERS
SUNY-Binghamton
Binghamton, NY
13901
(607) 777-2730

THE JEWISH MYSTIC IN KAFKA

BY JEAN JOFEN

"Jean Jofen...arrives at new and often unexpected explications of Kafka's works."

---Guy Stern, Distinguished Professor,
Wayne State University

"...a book of interest not only to every research library, but to all students of literature, of religion, and of the history of ideas..."---Ludwig W. Kahn, Gebhard Professor Emeritus of German Literature, Columbia University

1987 264 pp. $32.00
0-8204-0241-9

"...Jean Jofen's book is a welcome and indeed necessary addition to the existing literature, for the author makes excellent use of Judaic lore and illuminates Kafka's life and works through her extensive knowledge of Jewish mysticism and Yiddish literature...Hans Guggenheim's congenial illustrations add to the book's appeal."

---Harry Zohn, Brandeis University

FROM PETER LANG PUBLISHING
62 West 45 St., New York NY 10036 (212) 302-6740

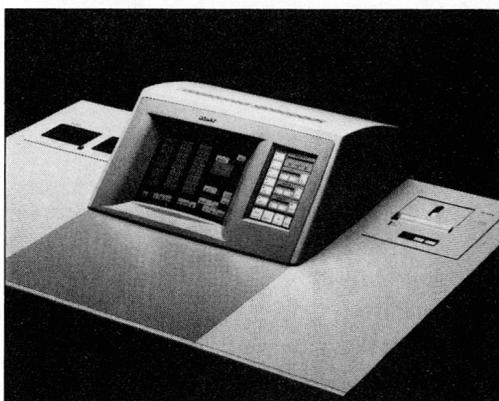

SONY LEARNING LABS.

Trust Sony to develop a superior Learning Lab to make learning a language easy and teaching a language even easier.

Sony offers a complete range of systems for all levels of teaching which are expandable and grow as your program grows.

All Sony Language Labs come with something no other system has—the Sony name. Plus Sony training, support and service. Best of all, Sony's advanced technology assures you of a system built for today's world, which is expandable for tomorrow's needs giving you true value for your money.

So isn't it time you graduated to the reliability, quality, and ease-of-use of a Sony Learning Lab? To learn more about the Learning Labs that are ahead of the class, call 1-800-635-SONY.

Easy-to-use!

Facile d'emploi!

Einfach im Gebrauch!

Fácil de utilizar!

Fácil da usar!

SONY®

Audio Visual Products

Sony Communications Products Company.
A Division of Sony Corporation of America
10833 Valley View Street, P.O. Box 2100, Cypress, California 90630

DISTINCTIVE

ACADEMIC

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

Ripon College International Study Center at Bonn

Send inquiries to:

Professor James F. Hyde, Jr., Director
International Study Center
Ripon College
P.O. Box 248
Ripon, WI 54971

NEW & SELECTED TITLES FROM CHICAGO

CAROLE PATTERSON

WAR STORIES

Poems about Long Ago and Now

HOWARD NEMEROV

"The poems of a master at his best. . . . They speak out in a beautiful unclouded voice of the experience of a flyer of the Second War. Although as 'war poems' they take their place among the best of that genre, they resonate far beyond their history with an arresting immediacy."—Karl Shapiro

Cloth $10.95 72 pages

THE PSYCHO-POLITICAL MUSE

American Poetry since the Fifties

PAUL BRESLIN

"The book makes both its historical and its evaluative cases brilliantly. The connection between contemporary poetry and psychopolitical thinking has been suggested before, but it has never been spelled out this clearly and cogently."—Alan Williamson, University of California, Davis

"This book is a pleasure to read."—Robert von Hallberg, University of Chicago

Cloth $27.50 280 pages

POLITICS AND POETIC VALUE

EDITED BY ROBERT VON HALLBERG

This collection investigates the ways in which evaluative standards may be applied to political poetry. Drawing on the works of such historically diverse poets as Pindar, Horace, Milton, Clare, and Cardenal, the contributors move beyond interpretation to suggest that various notions of value may be used to assess political poetry.

Paper $14.95 (est.) 360 pages (est.)

Library cloth edition $30.00 (est.)

THE NATURE OF LOVE

Volume 3: The Modern World

IRVING SINGER

Reviewers have called The Nature of Love "majestic" (New York Times Book Review), "monumental" (Boston Globe) and "one of the major works of philosophy in our century" (Robert C. Solomon, Nous). This final volume mines sources from Kierkegaard to Sartre, Nietzsche to Freud, Tolstoy to Lawrence, to show what's become of love in our modern world.

Cloth $24.95 (est.) 478 pages (est.)

Now available in paper

Volume 1: Plato to Luther

Second Edition

$15.95 396 pages

Volume 2: Courty and Romantic

$16.95 530 pages

LAUGHING MATTERS

Comic Tradition in India

LEE SIEGEL

Siegel reveals the neglected humor found in both ancient Sanskrit texts and in modern Indian life. In original and entertaining translations of Sanskrit dramas and poems, he introduces a parade of funny characters and offers a theory of humor.

Cloth $35.00 520 pages

34 halftones

THE LADY AND THE VIRGIN

Image, Attitude, and Experience in Twelfth-Century France

PENNY SCHINE GOLD

Foreword by Catharine R. Stimpson

Gold provides a bold analysis of key literary and artistic images of women in the Middle Ages and the relationship between these images and the actual experience of women. "[A] well-written, extremely well-researched book. . . . The Lady and the Virgin is useful, readable, and well informed."—R. Howard Bloch, Modern Philology

Paper $9.95 206 pages

9 halftones

Women in Culture and Society series

ART SHAY

CHICAGO

City on the Make

NELSON ALGREN

Introduction by Studs Terkel

"A kind of American annex to Dante's inferno. . . . [Chicago] searches a city's heart and mind."—Budd Schulberg, New York Times Book Review

"You should not read it if you cannot take a punch."

—Ernest Hemingway

Paper $6.95 112 pages

FROM REVERENCE TO RAPE

The Treatment of Women in the Movies

Second Edition

MOLLY HASKELL

"An incisive, exceedingly thoughtful look at the distorted lens through which Hollywood has historically viewed women."—Christian Science Monitor

Haskell updates her classic study with a new chapter on recent changes in the role of women in film.

Paper $14.95 460 pages

57 halftones

Library cloth edition $39.95

THE FEMALE AUTOGRAPH

Theory and Practice of Autobiography from the Tenth to the Twentieth Century

EDITED BY DOMNA C. STANTON

A fascinating investigation into women's strategies for constructing the self through autobiography, memoirs, letters, and diaries. Contributors include Sandra Gilbert and Susan Gubar, Julia Kristeva, Catharine R. Stimpson, Philippe Lejeune, Nancy Cott, Frances Smith Foster, Marysa Navarro, and others.

Paper $12.95 288 pages (est.)

12 halftones

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS 5801 South Ellis Avenue, Chicago, IL 60637

NEW YEAR, NEW IDEAS— NEW BOOKS FROM CORNELL

LITERATURE AND ITS THEORISTS

A Personal View of Twentieth-Century Criticism

By TZVETAN TODOROV. Translated by Catherine Porter. Part history, part confession, part manifesto, this is Tzvetan Todorov's bold statement of what literature is, and what criticism should be. The final volume of Todorov's trilogy on the theory and tradition of literary criticism, it complements Theories of the Symbol and Symbolism and Interpretation. $24.95

FEMINIST MILTON

By JOSEPH WITTREICH. Asserting that it is a coopted Milton whose words have long been quoted to support male dominance, Wittreich surveys female readers' responses to Milton, most notably during the period 1700–1830. For many of these women, Wittreich says, Milton was an ally engaged in dethroning authority and in transforming traditional gender paradigms. $22.95

THE LANGUAGE MACHINE

By ROY HARRIS. Harris considers how our views of language, as of the human mind, have been profoundly altered by the communications revolution of the twentieth century and especially by the development of the linguistic capacities of computers. Interest in artificial intelligence, the author asserts, has led to a mechanistic view of human intelligence. $29.95

THE ACHIEVEMENT OF CHRISTINA ROSSETTI

Edited by DAVID A. KENT. Bringing a variety of perspectives to the poetry, prose, and letters of a writer whose work is just now beginning to emerge from critical neglect, this collection of new essays will play an important role in the re-assessment of Christina Rossetti. $39.50

A CONCORDANCE TO THE COMPLETE ENGLISH POETRY OF JOHN SKELTON

Edited by ALISTAIR FOX and GREGORY WAITE. The Cornell Concordances. $49.50

CULTURE AND DOMINATION

By JOHN BRENKMAN. Brenkman delineates the connection between cultural interpretation and social theory through a critical reassessment of Marxism, psychoanalysis, and hermeneutics. "In its combination of readability, cogency, and disciplinary importance, this book sets itself apart."—Jonathan Arac, Columbia University. $24.95

PURITAN LEGACIES

Paradise Lost and the New England Tradition, 1630-1890

By KEITH W. F. STAVELY. "Using Paradise Lost as a touchstone first to the English Revolution and second to the way that revolution was transferred to and institutionalized in America, Stavely convincingly argues that the 'structure of feeling' embodied in the poem persists through three centuries of American culture."—Philip F. Gura, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. $29.95

THE NOVEL AS FAMILY ROMANCE Language, Gender, and Authority from Fielding to Joyce

By CHRISTINE VAN BOHEEMEN. Has the myth of woman as idealized "other" become the central myth of modernity? For women, what are the implications of the seemingly inescapable interweaving of the idea of gender with the very production of meaning? With these questions in mind, van Boheemen examines three major English novels, Tom Jones, Bleak House, and Ulysses. $24.95

RE-FORMING THE NARRATIVE

Toward a Mechanics of Modernist Fiction

By DAVID HAYMAN. In this work, Hayman deepens understanding of the overarching and pervasive modernist style by identifying five characteristic narrative strategies, revealing their origins, identifying their governing mechanisms, and making clear their often subversive function. $24.95

Cornell University Press, 124 Roberts Place, Ithaca, NY 14850