

CONFERENCE ON BRITISH STUDIES PRIZE

The Conference on British Studies will award its third triennial prize of three hundred dollars in November, 1966. The prize will be given for the best book published between January 1, 1963 and December 31, 1965, by an American or Canadian scholar. It must be the author's first book. Its subject must lie either within the field of English History or Commonwealth History. The prize will be awarded by a panel of judges consisting of:

J. H. Hexter, Yale University

A. R. M. Lower, Queen's University

Sidney R. Packard, Smith College

Enquiries and recommendations should be addressed to the Chairman, Professor J. H. Hexter, Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut.

The past recipients of the prize are: Philip P. Poirier, Ohio State University, 1960; C. Warren Hollister, University of California, 1963.

THE ELIZABETHANS' AMERICA

A Collection of Early Reports by Englishmen on the New World

Edited by LOUIS B. WRIGHT

This book presents, for the first time with modern punctuation and spelling, some of the more colorful descriptions, narratives, and reports by the 16th- and 17th-century English adventurers, explorers, and settlers in the New World. Included is an introduction by the editor providing a clear analysis of the atmosphere and temper of the times. $6.50

THE COMMONWEALTH IN THE WORLD

Third Edition

By J. D. B. MILLER

A new revised edition of a book considered by The American Political Science Review to be "a landmark in the analysis and explanation of the nature and position of the contemporary Commonwealth." The American Historical Review called it "an interesting, penetrating, and frank survey of what remains of a once powerful empire." $5.50

MAITLAND

A Critical Examination and Assessment

By H. E. BELL

This perceptive and engaging study of the great historian of the English constitution and medieval English law examines Maitland's point of view and explains its novelty. The author shows how Maitland moved from one subject to another, and provides an analysis of Maitland's later contributions to the many and diverse problems with which he was concerned. $4.00

THE ELIZABETHAN DUMB SHOW

The History of a Dramatic Convention

By DIETER MEHL

The use of the dumb show is a surprisingly common theatrical device in Elizabethan drama. In this book the author discusses its roots in civic shows and pageants, analyzes the various types and their diverse functions in individual plays, and demonstrates how their development reflects the main stages of growth in English Renaissance drama.

$4.50

POETS OF REALITY

Six Twentieth-Century Writers

By J. HILLIS MILLER

Challenging the assumption that modern poetry is merely the extension of an earlier romanticism, the author presents critical studies of the six central figures — Joseph Conrad, W. B. Yeats, T. S. Eliot, Dylan Thomas, Wallace Stevens, and William Carlos Williams — who played key roles in evolving a new kind of poetry in the 20th century. Belknap Press.
$7.95

MEASURE FOR MEASURE

By WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

Edited by J. W. LEVER

Here is the full text of the play based on the First Folio, with a thorough and informative introduction. The editor sees the play not as a cynical "problem play," but as an essay in tragicomedy permeated by the values of Protestant Humanism. The Arden Shakespeare. $4.50

COLERIDGE'S PHILOSOPHY OF LITERATURE

The Development of a Concept of Poetry, 1791-1819

By J. A. APPELYARD

This is the first detailed study of the chronological development of Coleridge's literary theories. By means of a broad and comprehensive assessment of many aspects of Coleridge's thought on the nature of literature, this book throws new light on the unity of the developing philosophical point of view that lies behind the published works. $6.50

JOHN LYDGATE

Poet of Transition

By ALAIN RENOIR

Lydgate, the most productive and the most versatile writer of 15th-century England, has been all but ignored by modern literary criticism. Concentrating on the more important poems in this long-needed critical reappraisal, the author places Lydgate in the literary and historical context of his age. $5.50

HARVARD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

A History of England

Goldwin Smith, Wayne State University

Widely recognized for its scholarly emphasis on essentials, its ordered presentation, and its eminently readable style, this history has been extensively revised and updated for its Third Edition. In addition to completely rewriting the last two chapters, Professor Smith has made additions and corrections throughout the text, revised and updated the bibliography, and added six new pages of photographs to the text's extensive body of illustrations.

1966. 944 pages. 130 illustrations, 21 maps. Tentative, $8.50

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS / NEW YORK

THE MEMOIRS OF JAMES II:

His Campaigns as Duke of York, 1652-1660

translated and edited by A. Lytton Sells with an introduction by Sir Arthur Bryant

One of the most important literary-historical finds of the twentieth century, this authentic version of the long-missing memoirs of King James II of England was discovered accidentally in 1954 in a chateau in southern France thus making available for the first time highly important material on the Stuart period, particularly some accounts of the negotiations of the restoration of Charles II to the throne of England.

301 pages

illustrated

(Regularly $6.95 this volume is offered to subscribers of this journal at the special price of $3.45. Please address Joe Phillips at the address below for this special discount.)

INDIANA UNIVERSITY PRESS

10th & Morton Streets

Bloomington, Indiana

A Quarterly Published by Authority of the General Convention

HISTORICAL MAGAZINE

OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

U.S.A. $1.25 the Copy — $6.00 the Year

A journal of the historical narrative, bibliography, documents and interpretation in the field of the Protestant Episcopal Church and the Anglican Communion.

Order from:

BOX 2247, AUSTIN, TEXAS 78767

THE HISTORICAL JOURNAL

Editor: F. H. HINSLEY

Contents of Volume VIII, No. 2, 1965

ARTICLES:

- I. History and Ideology in the English Revolution. By Quentin Skinner.
- II. The Political Role of the Parlement of Paris, 1715-23. By J. H. Shennan.
- III. A Great Electioneer and his Motives: the fourth Duke of Newcastle. By John Golby.
- IV. The Sunday Trading Riots of 1855. By Brian Harrison.
- V. The Introduction of Old Age Pensions in Great Britain. By Doreen Collins.

COMMUNICATION:

Uncontested Seats in British General Elections, 1852-1910. By Trevor Lloyd.

REVIEW ARTICLES:

1. Government by Edict? By G. R. Elton.
2. The Making of the English Working Class. By Geoffrey Best.

OTHER REVIEWS:

Subscription price per volume of 3 parts $7.00
Copies may be ordered from your bookseller or from

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

32 East 57th Street, New York, N. Y. 10022

The Portraits of Alexander Pope

by William Kurtz Wimsatt

The two aims of this vast work are to present for the first time a catalogue raisonné of the Pope portraits and to tell the story of his life as valued friend, constant associate, and willing subject of the artists of his day. Of the more than 200 examples illustrated, over 45 have never before been published. $20.00

Poems on Affairs of State

Augustan Satirical Verse, 1660-1714

Volume II: 1678-1681

edited by Elias F. Mengel, Jr.

The second volume of the authoritative Yale Edition chronicles the popular reaction to the events and public figures of one of the most dramatic periods in English history. The collection is a sampling of the huge output of political verse written as a result of the Popish Plot and the subsequent formation of the Whig and Tory parties. $12.50

Intellectuals in Politics: John Stuart Mill and the Philosophic Radicals

by Joseph Hamburger

The author of James Mill and the Art of Revolution has now written a study of John Stuart Mill and the other disciples of Bentham and James Mill who engaged in parliamentary politics during the decade following the Reform Bill. Since their political activity was meant to be an expression of a philosophical position, they are examined both as philosophers and politicians. $7.50

Slave Society in the British Leeward Islands at the End of the Eighteenth Century

by Elsa V. Goveia

By placing detailed analyses of the political, economic, legal, social, and religious organization of the community of white masters, colored freedmen, and Negro slaves in the Leeward Islands against a general background of the humanitarian agitation and incipient economic decline that were already affecting the British West Indies, Miss Goveia emphasizes the significant connections between the development of the slave society and the progress of the struggle for its reform. $8.50

YALE UNIVERSITY PRESS, NEW HAVEN AND LONDON

Canadian orders: McGill University press

Magna Carta

J. C. HOLT

The first full scholarly study since that of McKechnie in 1905 (revised 1914). Professor Holt presents the Charter in the context of the politics, administration and political thought of England and Europe in the 12th and 13th centuries, and discusses the precedents for Magna Carta, the negotiations, amendments, and later interpretations. $11.50

Two Tudor Conspiracies

D. M. LOADES

An account of Sir Thomas Wyatt's rebellion in 1554 and the Dudley conspiracy of 1556, which took place during the period when opposition to the Tudor monarchy reached its highest point. $8.50

The Pursuit of Certainty

SHIRLEY ROBIN LETWIN

In a study of the work and thought of David Hume, Jeremy Bentham, John Stuart Mill and Beatrice Webb, Mrs Letwin examines the relationship between changes in the understanding of political activity and in general views of human life during the last two centuries in England. $9.50

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

32 East 57th Street, New York, N. Y. 10022

Oxford University Press

British Strategy and Politics 1914 to 1918

By PAUL GUINN, Institute for Defense Analyses, Washington. This work describes the course of British war policy in the light of external pressures and internal politics. "It is difficult to praise sufficiently warmly. He has extracted the meat from virtually all the source books; he has strengthened his conclusions by judicious use of original material in the Asquith and Kitchener papers, and his book is, as a result, an extremely valuable conflation of the published material on the war."—The Times Literary Supplement. 14 plates, 8 maps. $7.20

The Bradlaugh Case

A Study of Late Victorian Opinion and Politics

By WALTER L. ARNSTEIN, Roosevelt University, Chicago. Should Charles Bradlaugh, the notorious atheist, political radical and advocate of birth control, be permitted to take his seat as a Member of Parliament? This question agitated British political and religious leaders for several years (1880-1886). "Professor Arnstein is the first to clear up every aspect of this complicated case. His book is a model of precise history. It is beautifully written and unflinchingly accurate."—A. J. P. TAYLOR, New Statesman. 6 plates. $8.00

British Foreign Policy and the Coming of the Franco-Prussian War

By RICHARD MILLMAN, University of California at Davis. This re-evaluation of British foreign policy on the eve of the Franco-Prussian war is based on a thorough investigation of primary sources, including new materials never before published. Access to the private Derby and Stanley papers has enabled the author to fill a gap in the history of 19th-century British foreign policy. $6.75

Great Britain's Underground War Against Revolutionary France

The Missions of William Wickham 1794-1800

By HARVEY MITCHELL, University of Alberta. Between 1789 and 1800 Britain and the counter-revolutionaries in France sought to subvert the Revolution and restore the French monarchy. This book examines the efforts of Grenville and his energetic minister in Switzerland, William Wickham, along with the roles of d'Antraigues, d'André, secret agents and Chamber deputies in the struggle, and gauges their effects on the course of the revolution. 1 plate. $5.60

Oxford University Press / New York

THE JOURNAL OF BRITISH STUDIES
TRINITY COLLEGE
HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT

The Journal of British Studies is published under the auspices of the Conference on British Studies. It was founded in 1961 as a result of the imaginative generosity of a Trinity alumnus, Mr. Frederick E. Hasler (Hon. LL.D. 1957). Trinity College and Mr. George M. Ferris (B.A. 1916) have since joined Mr. Hasler to support publication of the Journal.

The Journal appears twice in the academic year, in the autumn and in the spring.

The annual subscription starting with volume 5 will be $5.00. Commonwealth and foreign subscribers may remit by personal check or by check through their bankers, depending on their national exchange regulations.

Checks for subscriptions and enquiries concerning advertising rates should be addressed to the Business Manager, British Studies, Box 1315, Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut, 06106.

Correspondence concerning manuscripts should be sent to Professor Willson H. Coates, Department of History, University of Rochester, Rochester, New York, 14627.

Volume V, No. 2 will be published in May, 1966. For the convenience of subscribers who plan to have their copies bound, a title page containing a table of contents will be supplied every two years.

IMPORTANT ASSESSMENTS

New Books in History from The Johns Hopkins Press

BRITAIN AND AFRICA

by Kenneth Kirkwood, Oxford University. This new over-all assessment of the relations between Britain and Africa emphasizes not only Britain's influence in the area but also the dynamic interaction of ideas and cultures between peoples in different parts of the continent. Mr. Kirkwood traces the origins and development of the British presence in Africa, showing the historical depth of relations with Africa. He discusses the main international partners with whom Britain must now act in the post-colonial world in order to meet the challenge of completing her unfulfilled tasks in that vast and changing land.

$5.00

DOCTORS AND THE STATE

The British Medical Profession and Government Action in Public Health, 1870 - 1912

by Jeanne L. Brand, National Institute of Mental Health. Britain's program of preventive and curative medicine developed during a period of profound economic and social change. This story of the genesis of Britain's present health program is especially relevant to current developments in the United States. Miss Brand describes in detail the attitudes of the British medical profession to the new forms of social medicine and includes an account of the dramatic battle between the British Medical Association and Lloyd George over the National Health Insurance Act of 1911. $7.95

A BARONIAL FAMILY IN MEDIEVAL ENGLAND

The Clares, 1217 - 1314

by Michael Altschul, University of Michigan. This is the first consistent narrative of a thirteenth-century family to be written from the point of view of the earls themselves. Among English baronial families in this period, the Clares were the most successful in developing their lands and power. Mr. Altschul analyses the economic, administrative, and judicial organization of the family estates in England, Ireland, and the Welsh march and discusses the source of manorial income, the development and expansion of the manors, and the way in which land was used and cared for. Exhaustive use has been made of the unpublished family estate accounts and related documents, particularly the still unpublished late thirteenth-century judicial records of the Crown.

$7.50

THE JOHNS HOPKINS PRESS

Baltimore

The following articles will appear in forthcoming issues of the Journal of British Studies:

William O. Aydelotte – Parties and Issues in Early Victorian England

Ann Beck – Colonial Policy and Education in British East Africa, 1900-1950

J. W. Daly – Could Charles I Be Trusted? The Royalist Case, 1642-1646

Leon D. Epstein – The Nuclear Deterrent and the British Election of 1964

Elizabeth Read Foster – Procedure in the House of Lords during the Early Stuart Period

William M. Lamont – The Rise and Fall of Bishop Bilson

J. C. Russell – The Preplague Population of England

Leonard J. Trinterud – William Haller, Historian of Puritanism

Lois G. Schwoerer – The Role of King William III of England in the Standing Army Controversy