Splendid Monarchy

Power and Pageantry in Modern Japan
T. Fujitani

"A model for how to study those practices such as ceremonies, rituals, and commemorative sites as a subject of historical analysis. It is one of the very best books we have on Meiji history in any Western language and ranks with the very best works in Japanese."

—Harry Harootunian, author of
Toward Restoration

Twentieth-Century Japan, $40.00 cloth, illustrated

From Splendid Monarchy

Reason and Passion

Representations of Gender in a Malay Society
Michael G. Peletz

"The single best study of gender and culture that I know." —Robert Hefner, editor of Conversion to Christianity

"This book mixes aspects of 'old' and 'new' ethnography to powerful and persuasive effect." —Sherry Ortner, University of California, Berkeley

$50.00 cloth, $20.00 paper, illustrated

The Middling Sort

Commerce, Gender, and the Family in England, 1680-1780
Margaret R. Hunt

"A very full, nuanced, up-to-date, and lucidly expressed account. . . . The discussion is impressively wide-ranging (spanning cultural, economic, intellectual, social, and women's history)." —Johann Sommerville, University of Wisconsin-Madison

A Miracle Mirrored

The Dutch Republic in European Perspective
Karel Davids and Jan Lucassen, Editors

This book provides the first comparative study of key issues in Dutch history from the late sixteenth to the mid-nineteenth century.

Contributors: Karel Davids, Jan Lucassen, Henk van Nierop, Marjolein Hart, Marc Boone, Maarten Prak, Olaf Mörke, William Speck, Wiebe Bergsma, Margaret Spufford, Michael North, Peter Spufford, Leo Noordegraaf, Jan Luiten van Zanden

The Reformation and Rural Society

The Parishes of Brandenburg-Ansbach-Kulmbach, 1528-1603

C. Scott Dixon

This book examines the relationship between the Reformation movement of the sixteenth century and the rural population of Germany. The experience of the Reformation by the average villager is described, and an attempt is made to understand the villagers in their own terms.

48311-5 Hardback $49.95

Land, Custom and Practice in the South Pacific

R. Gerard Ward and Elizabeth Kingdon, Editors

This book argues that in the South Pacific Islands, land formerly held by community groups under traditional forms of tenure is now often being privatized. The authors present case studies from four countries, and examine parallels from other regions experiencing comparable socio-economic forces.

Contributors: Antony Hooper, Kerry James, Elizabeth Kingdon, J. Tim O'Meara, Margaret Rodman, R. Gerard Ward

Labour, Science and Technology in the Age of Valois and Bourbon, 1500-1620

Henry Heller

In this detailed study, Heller challenges the dominant approach to the history of early modern France, that of the Annales school, with its emphasis on long-term economic and cultural forces. He reexamines the history of the sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries in France, and finds a surprising degree of economic, technological and scientific innovation.

COMPARATIVE STUDIES IN SOCIETY AND HISTORY

ISSN 0010-4175

Founded by Sylvia L. Thrupp

Comparative Studies in Society and History is a forum for presentation and discussion of new research into problems of change and stability that recur in human societies through time or in the contemporary world. It sets up a working alliance between specialists in all branches of the social sciences and humanities. Debate and review articles bring the general reader in touch with current findings and issues.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Contributions may be descriptive, analytical, or theoretical. Any article not in itself comparative may be accepted if it lends itself to comment that will place it in comparative perspective. Correspondence with the editors prior to the submission of articles will help to enable them to obtain such comment or a companion study. Emphasis in comparative studies may be either on similarities or, if these are significant enough and call for some recasting of generalizations, on differences. All contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to the Editors, Comparative Studies in Society and History, 102 Rackham Building, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109-1070.

Three copies of each contribution should be submitted. Both text and footnotes should be clearly typed with double spacing and wide margins; footnotes should appear on separate pages at the end of the article. Illustrations may be included by arrangement with the editors.
