The following is a list of the questions which appeared on the paper:—

1. Explain the process of digestion and name the organs concerned therein.
2. What are the general bodily symptoms indicative of kidney disease?
3. If it is necessary to use force with a patient, what precautions would you take?
4. Trace the course of the blood from the time it leaves the left ventricle till it returns again.
5. What is meant by a "fixed" delusion, and give the different types?
6. Distinguish between sensory and motor nerves. What is reflex action? Give an example.
7. Name the clinical varieties of insanity, giving a short summary of the symptoms which each presents.
8. Mention the various methods by which suicide may be attempted as far as you have heard, and briefly indicate the appropriate precautions to be adopted in respect of each variety.
9. Describe the occurrence known as an epileptic fit. Briefly say what special measures are required in the treatment of epileptic patients.
10. State the indications which would lead you to believe that a bone was broken, and describe the steps that you would adopt in such an event before the arrival of medical aid.

The next examination will be held on Monday, May 2, 1898, and candidates are earnestly requested to send in their schedules, duly filled up, to the Registrar of the Association not later than Monday, April 4, 1898, as that will be the last day upon which, under the rules, applications for examination can be received.

NOTE.

As the names of some of the persons to whom the Nursing Certificate has been granted by the Association have been removed from the Register, Employers are requested to refer to the Registrar in order to ascertain if a particular name is still on the Roll of the Association. In all enquiries the number of the Certificate should be given.

Professional Examinations.

The next examination for the Certificate in Psychological Medicine will be held in July, 1898.

The examination for the Gaskell Prize will take place at Bethlem Hospital, London, in the same month.

Competitors for the Bronze Medal and Prize of Ten Guineas must send in their essays to the President before May 30, 1898.

For further particulars respecting the various examinations of the Association apply to the Registrar, Dr. Spence, Burntwood Asylum, near Lichfield.
