

MEDIEVAL CORNWALL

L. E. ELLIOTT-BINNS, D.D., F.R.HIST.S. 35s.

'A readable and sympathetic book on what might have been thought a remote and esoteric subject.' A. L. Rowse in Time and Tide.

'He covers his ground thoroughly: few Cornish historians have done this, most of them having been preoccupied with particular localities.' Sir John Squire in The Illustrated London News.

'He presents a unity to the mind, and it is the recognition of this fundamental unity grounded in religion which lends to a scholarly book its basic authority.' The Tablet.

'A splendid work of historic scholarship, the product of humane learning and deep Christian conviction. It has, moreover, remarkable literary distinction.' The Church Times.

We are proud to announce a volume on Romans by Dr Vincent Taylor, as the first volume in this series. Dr Taylor has an unrivalled name as Biblical scholar and commentator.

THE FORMATION OF THE PAULINE CORPUS OF LETTERS

By C. LESLIE MITTON, M.Th., Ph.D.

St John's Gospel: A Commentary
With the Revised Version Text

BY THE LATE R. H. LIGHTFOOT

EDITED BY C. F. EVANS

This book assumes no special linguistic equipment such as a knowledge of Greek, but is a religious and theological exposition of the text of St John's Gospel—a task for which the author was well qualified by his combination of deep faith, meticulous scholarship, and great gifts as a teacher. Mr Evans has set the Introduction in order and contributed a Preface. 30s. net

An Historical and Critical Study

BY C. R. NORTH

Second edition

The first edition appeared in 1948. This second edition has been revised and enlarged. What is substantially the author's article on 'Current Scandinavian Discussions' in The Scottish Journal of Theology, iii, 1950, has (by permission of the editors of the Journal) been substituted for the Postscript to the First Edition. 25s. net

'A thorough, competent and exhaustive study of the whole subject, indispensable to the Old Testament student, and of special interest (because of the author's own solution) to the New Testament student.' The Society for Old Testament Study Book List, reviewing the First Edition.

Jesus and the First Three Gospels

BY WALTER E. BUNDY

Professor Bundy has already edited a synopsis of the first three Gospels and he here re-examines the whole of their contents so as to write in effect a comprehensive commentary on them in one volume, with special reference to the varied oral traditions embodied in them.
