NOTES TO CONTRIBUTORS

The Journal of Policy History provides an interdisciplinary forum for scholars concerned with the application of historical perspectives to public policy studies. The journal aims to encourage research into the formation and development of public policy while encouraging the application of diverse methods and theories to public policy and their politics within a historical perspective. In addition to social scientists and historians, the journal seeks to inform policy makers through a historical approach to public policy.

The Journal of Policy History is intended to give voice to scholars interested in understanding public policies and their development through historical inquiry and interpretation. The journal publishes historical studies of specific policy areas and policy institutions, and explores continuities and shifts in policy over time. The journal encourages interdisciplinary research into the origins and development of public policy in the United States and other countries. Comparative historical approaches to the development of public policies are also welcomed.

Manuscripts should be typed and double-spaced with end notes following the text and generally should not exceed 8,000 words. Please follow the Chicago Manual of Style for citation format. Manuscripts will be reviewed anonymously, and authors' names, including positions, addresses, and phone numbers, should appear only on the title page. Your submission should include the following: Title page, a copy of the manuscript, an abstract not exceeding 150 words, and a biographical statement not exceeding 50 words. Submit contribution online at <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jpolhist>. Log in and follow directions given on the site.
