2ND EDITION

THEATRE AUDIENCES

Susan Bennett

'Bennett's book is enormously useful and compelling'
- Jill Dolan, Theatre Journal

The revised edition of Susan Bennett's highly successful Theatre Audiences is a unique full-length study of the audience as cultural phenomenon, which looks at both the theories of spectatorship and the practices of theatres. A new preface and a revised, up-to-date bibliography feature in this second edition.

ASSISTANT EDITOR
Jason T. Garrett

Theatre Survey is chartered by the American Society for Theatre Research (ASTR) as a theatre history journal. Its theatrical and historical orientations are both broadly conceived. Performance-centered studies are welcome from all points across all historical, cultural, and methodological spectra, as are historiographic studies. Studies of dramatic literature not substantively related to actual performance normally would be outside of the purview of the journal.

announces the

Third Annual New Scholar's Prize

for the best essay by a new scholar, who must be under 35 years of age or who will not have completed his/her Ph.D. prior to May 1998, on the topic of the FIRT/IFTR World Congress to be held in Canterbury (University of Kent), in July 1998:

Exploring the Limits

The essay, not to exceed 5000 words, should be submitted in hard copy and on disk, and should focus on the relationship between theatre and cultures in the world, theories and practices in today's theatre; or the connection between them. Languages: English or French.

The New Scholar's Prize consists of airfare, fees and accommodation for the IFTR/FIRT World Congress in Canterbury, 6-11 July, 1998, and a year's membership in the organization. There will be an opportunity to publish the essay in Theatre Research International.

Deadline for receipt of essays: 1 March 1998
