

In July we are publishing the fourth volume in this now-famous series:

POVERTY

This volume treats not only of the evangelical and monastic command to 'sell all and follow Christ', but also of canonical and economic matters concerned with the vow. Procurators may benefit in particular, as well as Superiors, by these pages; and those who realise the importance of the constitution Sponsa Christi will find here useful applications of it to the present situation of religious sisters. The structure of this volume is similar to that of its predecessors. The first part considers the History of Religious Poverty; the second and most fundamental part is concerned with Doctrine and establishes the basic principles; the third part, dealing with Modern Problems, will be found to be of especial practical importance.

The first three titles in this series are also available: Religious Sisters (18s.), now in its second impression; Vocation (10s. 6d.) also in a second impression, and Obedience (16s. 6d.). The fifth volume, Chastity, is in preparation now and will be published late this year. A new volume, Directoire des Prêtres Chargés de Religieuses has just appeared in French and considers the duties and responsibilities of the priests whose office it is to minister to the spiritual needs of religious sisters. The English translation is already in hand and will be published during
