

sufficient to achieve this. It must reach the stage of the most complete unity of brothers living together in the Lord somewhere in the Church.

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS TO THIS ISSUE

DESMOND CHUTE; priest, tertiary of the Order of Preachers, worked with Eric Gill as an engraver and carver in stone.

FINBAR SYNNOTT, O.P.; at work in the Mission of the English Dominican Province in South Africa among coloured people.

RAYMUND DEVAS, O.P.; has worked for many years in the Mission of the English Dominican Province in Grenada, B. W. I. Author of Conception Island and English Dominican Martyrs.

A YEAR'S PLEASURE FOR A VALUED FRIEND

BLACKFRIARS

A subscription for twelve issues costs only 12s. 6d. We will post to any part of the world, and, if you wish, enclose your greeting with the first copy, which can be either the December or January number. We hope this solves at least one of your gift problems for Christmas 1950.

BLACKFRIARS PUBLICATIONS

34 Bloomsbury Street
London, W.C.1