Monthly Public Health Law Webinar Series

1-2 pm ET

Every month ASLME and its partners bring together experts in various public health fields to discuss timely and critical topics — including distracted driving, obesity prevention, gun violence and firearms law, health impact assessments, primary care provider roles, and many more. The webinars are free and open to all interested parties. Registration is required.

2014 Public Health Law Conference

October 16-17, 2014

Loews Atlanta Hotel

Atlanta, GA

This conference will gather public health and legal experts from across the country to learn about and discuss today's critical challenges in public health law. Top experts will lead insightful sessions on a range of emerging issues from a variety of perspectives. Attendees will return home inspired and equipped to improve public health with legal solutions.

The Ethics and the Law for Those with Special Needs: Fair Is What Fair Is

February 18-20, 2015

University of Arizona College of Medicine

Phoenix, Arizona

This conference will gather those interested in the law and ethics of those with special needs. The conference will focus on the changing and challenging world of those with special needs examining the issues that expand beyond the boundaries of classical ethical questions and explore the relationship between the law and ethics as it relates to those with special needs, a vulnerable patient population especially those with severe intellectual disabilities.
