European Journal of Political Research

Official Journal of the European Consortium for Political Research

Editors:

Mogens N. Pedersen, Odense University, Denmark; Michael Laver, University College, Galway, Ireland

The European Journal of Political Research publishes original articles or English-language translations of major articles in other languages by political scientists and other scholars engaged in political research who are affiliated with European institutions of higher learning. The majority of articles published are of a broadly theoretical or comparative nature. The work of scholars not affiliated with European institutions is also published when it constitutes part of a collective enterprise with European scholars, or when it deals with European comparative politics and international relations.

The journal also publishes review articles on significant books and other publications, as well as on current ongoing research in specific areas of political science, short research notes, and news and announcements of activities of the European Consortium for Political Research.

European Journal of Political Research is abstracted by the International Bibliography of the Social Sciences.

WHAT DOES EUROPEAN SOCIAL POLICY MEAN?

What is subsidiarity? Why does Europe deal with poverty differently from Australia, Canada and the USA? How is Eastern Germany coping with mass unemployment? And why do you need to know?

In the 1990s, social policy decisions are increasingly being made at a European rather than at a national level. It is therefore vital for everyone with an academic or professional interest in social policy to stay in touch with new developments.

Journal of European Social Policy is the only journal to focus on these issues.

Published quarterly, it provides expert and up-to-date coverage of a wide range of social policy issues, such as: ageing and pensions, unemployment, poverty, migration, benefits, gender, health care, HIV/Aids, professional mobility, and international organizations.

The journal includes articles from top specialists and academics across Europe; up-to-date information on social trends, legislation, EC programmes and new research; book reviews and a noticeboard of forthcoming events.

Incomparable Worth

Pay Equity Meets the Market

STEVEN E. RHOADS

'His insightful and detailed accounts of how pay equity actually works, or doesn't, will be deeply unsettling even to its most ardent proponents. This book is essential reading for anyone interested in the problem of labor market discrimination and in the actual – as opposed to the intended – consequences of policies aimed at eliminating it.'

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

A Journal of Comparative Politics

Parliamentary Affairs has two great virtues. It is international and also accessible. When so many political science journals are becoming impenetrably technical, Parliamentary Affairs still publishes a wide range of articles that can be confidently recommended to students.

OXFORD JOURNALS

Notes for Contributors

1 All contributions should be sent to: The Editors, British Journal of Political Science, University of Essex, Wivenhoe Park, Colchester, Essex CO4 3SQ. They should not be sent to the Cambridge University Press or to the Editorial Assistant.

2 Articles submitted to the Journal should in general be between 5,000 and 12,000 words (or equivalent in tables and figures) in length. An abstract not exceeding 120 words is required.

3 Notes and Comments are welcome. A Note should contain a body of original information, a new method for doing something or a new idea (speculation, argument, proof, etc.) presented in a brief and unadorned form without inessential commentary. Comments containing criticisms of articles published in the Journal and additional thoughts on them will be considered for early publication, especially if they are short – say, under 1,000 words.

4 Most issues of the Journal contain a Review Article – either a detailed discussion of a single book or a review of the state of some area of the discipline. Review Articles submitted without prior consultation will be considered for publication, but in their own interest contributors would be well advised not to prepare a Review Article specially for the Journal without first getting in touch with the Editors.

5 Contributors should note the Journal's editorial policy, which is as stated inside the front cover.

6 Authors of articles and Review Articles receive twenty-five free offprints. Additional copies may be bought if they are ordered at proof stage.

7 Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not been previously published and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. In the interest of authors, copyright is normally assigned to the Cambridge University Press.

8 Authors should submit FOUR COPIES of their articles. Contributions must be typed and may be reproduced in any clearly legible form. The preferred size of paper is A4 (8¼ × 11½ in), but quarto (8 × 10 in) or the US standard size (8½ × 11 in) will also be accepted. Because of postage costs, manuscripts not accepted for publication are not normally returned to the authors unless their return is specifically requested.

9 The entire material of any article, including footnotes, quotations, appendices, etc., should be double spaced, with left-hand margins of at least 1½ in. The preferred treatment of footnotes is that they should be numbered consecutively in the text and typed double spaced all together at the end, beginning on a fresh page.

10 Anyone who is preparing a manuscript for submission to the Journal is urged to follow the Journal's style sheet, which covers a number of detailed points concerning footnotes, punctuation, spelling, etc. Copies of the style sheet can be obtained from the Editor. Footnote references should always contain, in the case of books, the name of the author as it appears on the title page, the full title including any subtitle, the place of publication, the name of the publisher and the date of publication, and, in the case of articles, the name of the author, the full title, the name of the journal, the volume number, the year and the page reference (number of first and last page).

11 First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by air mail where appropriate, within ten days of receiving them. The master proof will always be sent directly to the Editor by the printer; contributors will receive duplicates.

COPYING

This journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, 27 Congress St., Salem, Mass. 01970. Organizations in the USA who are also registered with C.C.C. may therefore copy material (beyond the limits permitted by sections 107 and 108 of US copyright law) subject to payment to C.C.C. of the per copy fee of $05.00. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes Code 0007-1234/93 $5.00 + .00

Organizations authorized by the Copyright Licensing Agency may also copy material subject to the usual conditions.

Claims for missing issues will be considered only if made immediately upon receipt of the subsequent issue.
