Journal of Victorian Culture is the new journal for scholars of the Victorian period. Established in Spring 1996, the journal is edited and published in Britain with the assistance of a distinguished group of Editorial Consultants. Journal of Victorian Culture is interdisciplinary and eclectic, publishing work by established scholars alongside innovative newcomers. It provides an international forum for the exchange of information, discussion, and debate, on all aspects of Victorian history and culture, acting as a vital focus for contemporary scholarly activity in this extremely diverse field.

Journal of Victorian Culture encompasses the various disciplines which have traditionally constituted Victorian Studies:

- ☛ Architectural history
- ☛ Cultural studies
- ☛ Economic and social history
- ☛ The history of science and technology
- ☛ Literary studies
- ☛ Music
- ☛ Popular culture
- ☛ Theatre
- ☛ The visual arts

The journal also confronts issues and raises questions across traditional disciplinary boundaries.
