GRANTS FOR TRAVEL AND RESEARCH AT THE ROCKEFELLER ARCHIVE CENTER

The Rockefeller Archive Center, a division of The Rockefeller University, invites applications for its programme of Grants for Travel and Research at the Rockefeller Archive Center for 1995. The competitive programme makes grants of up to $1,500 to U.S. and Canadian researchers and up to $2,000 to researchers from abroad in any discipline, usually graduate students or post-doctoral scholars, who are engaged in research that requires use of the collections at the Center. These include the records of the Rockefeller family, the Rockefeller Foundation, The Rockefeller University, and other philanthropic organizations and associated individuals. The deadline for applications is 31 December 1994; grant recipients will be announced in March 1995. Inquiries about the programme and requests for applications should be addressed to Darwin H. Stapleton, Director, Rockefeller Archive Center, 15 Dayton Avenue, North Tarrytown, New York 10591-1598, USA.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR THE HISTORY OF MEDICINE Annual Conference 11 to 14 May 1995

The American Association for the History of Medicine (AAHM) will hold its annual conference 11-14 May 1995 on the campus of the University of Pittsburgh. Besides the traditional AAHM meeting, over a dozen other national and international history of medicine/health care societies will be organizing and running their own special programmes in conjunction with the AAHM sessions. Many of the world's leading scholars in the history of medicine, nursing, pharmacy, dentistry, and public health issues will be meeting together for the first time. Special financial arrangements have been made to encourage medical/graduate students to attend. Anyone who is not an AAHM member and wishes more information, or to be placed on the registration mailing list should send a letter/card to that effect to Dr Jonathon Erlen, LAC Chair, 123 Northview Dr., Pittsburgh, PA 15209, USA, or jon@med.pitt.edu.

100 BOOKS FAMOUS IN MEDICINE Exhibition at the Grolier Club of New York 20 September to 23 November 1994

An exhibition of books and manuscripts of importance in the history of medicine from the classical period up to the invention of the CAT scan in 1973 can be seen at the Grolier Club (47 East 60th Street, New York 10022). The 100 texts include the original editions of works by Andreas Vesalius, William Harvey, Edward Jenner, and Alexander Fleming, among others. More than thirty public and private libraries, including the College of Physicians of Philadelphia, the Countway Library of Medicine, the Lilly Library, the Osler Library, the New York Academy of Medicine, and the Pierpont Morgan Library are among the lenders. The exhibition is open Monday to Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and admission is free.
